Revised Rules for Bonding Salt passed by the Board of Revenue L. P. in their letter to the Collector of Customs, No. 234, of 29th March, 1853, and published for general information.

I. Parties desirous of bonding imported Salt in private Warehouses, may apply to Collector of Customs for a License in the form C. appended to Act No. XXV. of 1836.

If the Board are satisfied, on the Collector's Report, that the Warehouses mentioned in the application are well adapted for the secure custody of the Salt, a License will be granted under Section XIX. of the abovementioned Act, and Salt may then be bonded therein under the restrictions provided by the Act in respect of any other article of Merchandise bonded in a private Warehouse.

II. Warehouses licensed for the reception of Salt under Bond, will not be available for goods of any other description.

III. A portion of the Government Golahs at Salka has been set apart as a public Warehouse for the reception of Salt on the same terms at a fixed rent, and will continue to be available for that purpose until required by Government.

IV. All weighing transport and storage charges will be borne by the Bondor, as also all delivery charges on the Salt being cleared out from Bond.

V. The Salt will be weighed over the Ship's side, for which purpose weighmen will be furnished from the Custom House on requisition from the Bondor, and on his complying with the forms lately prescribed by the Board for their remuneration at the rate of 3 Rupees per 1000 maunds.

VI. The Bondors will be required to make use of covered boats, and to provide wax and tape for sealing the hatches. Each boat will be sealed by the Preventive Officer on board, and be furnished at the same time with the usual Boat Note, specifying the quantity placed under Seal. [Vide
Notification in "Exchange Gazette" of the 11th
May, 1853.]

VII. Bonded Salt will be stored under the supervision of an Officer deputed for this purpose by the Collector of Customs or the Superintendent of the Government Golahs, and it will be the duty of such Officer to receive and examine the Boat Notes, and to see, that the Seals of the hatches are entire. The Salt will not be weighed into Warehouse, but in other respects the precautions in use for storing Government Salt will be observed.

VIII. The Superintendent of the Government Golahs will Report for the Board's sanction such disbursements as may be necessary for preparing Golah accommodation, or for Extra Establishment, on account of Salt Warehoused in the Golahs, all of which will, after audit, be charged to the fund derivable from Golah rents.

IX. Any Extra Establishment that may be necessary for the surveillance of Salt lodged in private Warehouses, both while it remains in Bond and on delivery, must be paid by the Bondor.

X. In settling for duty on the clearance of Salt warehoused in the Government Golahs, a deduc-tion will be allowed on account of wastage, at a rate not exceeding two and a half per cent. upon the quantity delivered over the Ship's side. Provided, however, that if the Collector of Customs have reason to believe, that any portion of the Salt has been clandestinely or fraudulently removed, he will be at liberty to levy duty on the entire quantity so delivered.

XI. For Salt deposited in private Warehouses, the duty will be settled on the quantity weighed over the Ship's side, according to the provisions of Section XVIII. Act XXV. of 1836.

XII. Parties desiring to Bond Salt, who may be unable to provide Warehouses so constructed and situated as, in the opinion of the Board, effectually to provide for the secure custody of Salt while under Bond, will be allowed, as before, to Warehouse their Salt under the Rules of the 28th September, 1841.

NOTICE.

With reference to the draft of a proposed Act, which was read in Council for the first time on the 13th May, 1853, entitled "An Act for the management of the Post Office and for the regulation of the Duties of Postage." Messrs. R. C. Lepage and Co. have much satisfaction in referring their constituents and the Indian Public to Clause 12, which provides for the circulation of Books, Pamphlets, &c., packed in prescribed form.

R. C. Lepage and Co. would take this opportunity to draw the particular attention of all those interested in the QUARTERLY ARMY LIST, published by them for the benefit of the Military Orphan Society, to the fact, that after the Act becomes law, the subscription to that publication will be as follows:

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS, TO INCLUDE POSTAGE TO ANY PART OF INDIA, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE, TWELVE RUPEES EIGHT ANNAS.

R. C. L. and Co. would, however, wish it to be generally known that, to ensure this advantageous rate to subscribers it will be necessary for them [R. C. L. & Co.] to prepay the postage on every copy despatched, and that should the subscription including postage not be remitted when due in advance, copies will be forwarded to all such parties bearing postage under the banghy postage scale of charges by weight and distance.

R. C. L. and Co. have much pleasure in stating that the circulation of the Army List from its commencement in 1849 (with the draw-back of the postal restrictions) has been of the most encouraging kind, and as it may be reasonably anticipated that a large number who have hitherto withheld their support will enrol themselves as subscribers, R. C. L. and Co. will be glad to receive intimation of the same at an early date, in order to provide against disappointment, by printing such a number of each impression as will supply all requirements.

The whole impression of No. 16 for January last, was disposed of, and of No. 17 for April last, only a few copies remain unsold.

R. C. LEPAGE & CO.

Fort William, Home Department Legislative,

The 20th May, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 20th May, 1853.

Act No. — of 1853.

An Act relating to the registry of Coasting and Fishing Vessels and Harbour Craft in the Presidency of Bombay.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the laws relating to the registry of coasting and fishing vessels and harbour craft in the Presidency of Bombay.

It is hereby enacted as follows:

I. From the day of

Act XIX. of 1838, is hereby repealed, except so far as it repeals any part of any Regulation, and except as to any act or offence which shall have been done or committed, or to any money which shall have become due, or to any fine or penalty which shall have been incurred, or to any proceedings which shall have been commenced on or before the said day of

II. This Act shall extend to the following vessels or craft belonging to any of Her Majesty's subjects residing within the Presidency of Bombay.

1. Vessels employed on the Coasts of the territories subject to the Government of Bombay, or in the conveyance of goods or passengers from any part of such territories to any other part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, or from any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company to any part of the territories subject to the Government of Bombay, and vessels so employed shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be coasting vessels.

2. Vessels employed in fishing on any part of the Coasts of the territories subject to the Government of Bombay.

3. Any craft employed in any harbour subject to the Government of Bombay.

III. The name and number of every such vessel and craft, also her burthen and the name or names of the owner or owners thereof, shall be registered in a book to be kept for that purpose by the persons hereinafter directed to register such vessels and craft, and it shall also be stated in the book whether such vessel is intended to be used as a coasting vessel, or as a fishing vessel, or harbour craft.

IV. The Collectors of Customs under this Presidency are hereby appointed registering officers to register such vessels and craft, and the said Collectors are hereby severally authorized to appoint any subordinate officers on their respective establishments to perform the duties of registration at the several ports of registry within the limits of their respective Collectories.

V. The following are appointed as ports for the registration of the aforesaid vessels and craft:

- | | |
|--------------|------------------|
| 1. Bombay. | 8. Tannah. |
| 2. Cago. | 9. Carranja. |
| 3. Broach. | 10. Allibang. |
| 4. Surat. | 11. Mahar. |
| 5. Omurgaum. | 12. Ratnagherry. |
| 6. Tarapoer. | 13. Rajapoer. |
| 7. Bassein. | 14. Vingoria. |

VI. Every vessel and craft to which this Act applies is hereby required to be registered at one or other of the places above specified once in every five years.

VII. Whenever any change shall take place in the burthen of any such vessel or craft, or in the owner or owners, or any of the owners thereof, such registry shall be renewed, the former being at the same time cancelled.

VIII. Whenever it shall be necessary to have such vessel or craft registered, or to have the register thereof renewed, the owner or owners of such vessel or craft shall apply in the form appended hereto, marked A, or to the like effect, to the person authorized to make such registry or to renew the same as aforesaid.

IX. The several Collectors of Customs shall exchange every three months an extract from the registers kept by them, showing the numbers, names and burthens of the vessels and craft from time to time registered by them, as also the port and date of registry, and the names of the owner or owners of each vessel or craft.

X. Every vessel or craft, which shall be so registered, shall be marked with the name of the port at which she shall be registered, and also with the number assigned to her in the register, and such name and number shall be painted in black paint upon the ground on each quarter of such vessel or craft in English figures and letters, each figure and letter being at least six inches in length, and it shall be the duty of the master or owner of such vessel or craft to keep such letters and figures clear and legible, by repainting or otherwise.

XI. The duty of marking and of ascertaining the burthen of such vessels and craft shall be performed by the Collectors of Customs, or by such other persons as shall be appointed by them at the ports of registry within the limits of their respective Collectorates.

XII. The owner or owners of every vessel or craft, when registered as aforesaid, shall be furnished with a certificate of registry by the person who shall register the same, and such certificate shall be in the form appended hereto (marked B), or to the like effect.

XIII. The owners of any vessel, registered under this Act, except fishing vessels and harbour craft, shall, upon every such registry and before they shall receive such certificate, pay to the person authorized to make such registry a fee at the rate following,—that is to say

For a vessel not exceeding the burthen of 4 tons, one Rupee.

Exceeding 4 tons, and not exceeding 20 tons, five Rupees.

Exceeding 20 tons, and not exceeding 80 tons, seven Rupees.

Exceeding 80 tons, for each ton two annas, which fees shall be carried to the credit of the Government of Bombay.

XIV. If any such certificate shall be lost or destroyed a renewed certificate may be granted on payment of one-half of the fee above prescribed.

XV. The certificates of registry shall be sealed with the seal of the East India Company, and shall be signed by the person authorized to make such registry.

XVI. The owner or owners, or master or person having the management and control of every such vessel or craft, shall produce, on demand thereof by any Officer of the Customs, within the said territories under the Government of Bombay, or by any Officer of the Indian Navy, the certificate of registry furnished to vessels or craft as hereinbefore provided.

XVII. Nothing in this Act shall render it necessary for the owner of any vessel or craft, registered before the passing of this Act, to renew the registry thereof, before the expiration of five years from the time of the last registry thereof, unless there has been any change in the burthen or ownership of such vessel or craft since the last registry thereof, or unless there shall hereafter be any change in the ownership or burthen thereof within the said period of five years.

XVIII. If any such vessel or craft shall be used or employed as aforesaid without being so marked or branded in all respects as hereinbefore directed, or after the name and number of any such vessel or craft shall have ceased to be clear and legible, or before the owner or owners thereof shall have been furnished with such certificate as hereinbefore specified, or in case the owner or owners, or master or person having the management of any such vessel or craft, so employed as aforesaid, fishing vessel or craft, shall not produce such certificate on demand thereof as hereinbefore directed; or if any vessel registered as a fishing vessel or harbour craft shall be employed as a coasting vessel; the owner or owners, or master or other person having the control of every such vessel or craft, shall, for every such offence, be subject to a fine not exceeding ten times the amount of the fees payable upon such registry as aforesaid, if the same be a vessel upon the registry of which any fee is payable, or to a fine not exceeding ten rupees, if such vessel or craft be a fishing vessel or harbour craft, and such fine may be recovered, on conviction before any Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or person exercising the powers of a Magistrate, having jurisdiction within the said territories, and if not paid on conviction may be levied by distress and sale of such vessel or craft, her furniture, ammunition, tackle and apparel by warrant of such Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or person exercising the powers of a Magistrate.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that the Governor of Bombay in Council may direct compensation for trouble and diligence in seizing such vessel or harbour craft, furniture, tackle, ammunition and apparel as last mentioned, to be made out of such fine to the person or persons who shall have seized the same, to such amount, in such manner, and in such shares or proportions, as to the said Governor in Council shall seem meet.

XX. If any person shall wilfully and without lawful excuse alter or obliterate the mark or brand hereby required to be marked or branded on any such ship or vessel, or shall wilfully make any false statement in his application for any such registry, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum, not exceeding one hundred rupees, and such offence shall be punishable by a Magistrate, Joint Magistrate or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or by a Justice of the Peace.

XXI. This Act shall come into operation on the day of

It is requested that Government Notifications for the Calcutta Gazette of any length, may be sent to the Press by NOON of TUESDAYS and FRIDAYS; and of a few lines only, before 5 p. m. of those days.

SATURDAY, JUNE 4, 1853.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 27th May, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 27th May 1853.

ACT No. — of 1853.

An Act Supplemental to Act No. III. of 1853, relating to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company in the Presidency of Bombay.

WHEREAS by Act No. III. of 1853, certain offences are made punishable by penalties or forfeitures, and doubts have arisen whether such offences are punishable by Magistrates of Police in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba, and it is expedient to remove such doubts, and also to define by what officers such offences shall be punishable; It is enacted as follows:

I. Any person who shall be guilty of any offence for which according to the provisions of the said Act a person shall be liable to any fine, or forfeiture, shall be punishable any by Magistrate of Police in the Island of Bombay or Colaba, or by any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such offence shall be committed.

II. Any Deputy or Assistant Magistrate, and any district or joint Police Officer may, to the extent of the powers conferred upon him by the general Regulations of the Bombay Code, and by the Acts of the Governor General of India in Council, exercise the powers conferred upon a Magistrate by this Act, coupled with Act No. II. of 1839.

III. Payment of any fare to which any passenger not producing or delivering up his ticket shall be liable under Section I. of the said Act, may be enforced in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 12th day of July next.

General Orders by the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council.

Fort William, 3rd June, 1853.

No. 457 of 1853.—The Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to make the following promotions:

52nd Regiment Native Infantry,

Lieutenant and Brevet Captain
John Crommelin Lamb to be Captain of a Company,
Ensign Richard D'Oyly Compton Bracken to be Lieutenant,

From the 20th May,
1853, in succession to Captain Alexander
Mackintosh, deceased.

No. 458 of 1853.—The Most Noble the Governor General in Council is pleased, in modification of the 7th Clause of G. G. O., No. 451, of the 17th July, 1852, to direct, that instead of giving credit in accounts for the difference between the charge for rum, and its actual cost payable to canteens, under the operation of the above order, the Commissariat Department shall, in all cases, make monthly cash payments of the allowance on the receipted bills of Commanding Officers of Corps.

No. 459 of 1853.—The Most Noble the Governor General in Council is pleased to extend the provisions of G. G. O., No. 451, of the 17th July, 1852, to European Detachments having no canteens, and to direct that as rum has uniformly been charged for when supplied by the Commissariat, at the rate of rupees (2) two per gallon, (old wine measure,) the monthly allowance granted to canteens, under the operation of the above order, to reduce the retail price of malt liquor, shall be also paid for the same purpose at the prescribed rate to Officers Commanding Detachments of European Troops without canteens, with effect from the 1st August, 1852, and to be expended under such rules as may be laid down by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

Any contingent charges which may be incurred the Commissariat Department in serving out to Detachments without canteens, are to be by the Commanding Officer out of the month-vance on the presentation of bills by the Commissariat Officer or his Agent.

No. 460 of 1853.—With reference to General Order of the Governor General, dated 13th October 1849, publishing a Notification from the Foreign Department, No. 287, of the 12th of that month, which the wives and families of officers, and others were not permitted to reside in Hazara, the Most Noble the Governor General in Council is now pleased to permit officers to go with their wives and families to Nowshera, and to places on the line of road to Mozufferabad and Cashmere.

2. It is not at present considered expedient to extend this permission to the valleys of Hazara, or to places north of the high road to Cashmere, and near the Indus above Torbaila.

3. In modification of part of para.* 4, of Government General Order, No. 266, of the 23rd April, 1852, it is hereby notified, that the straight road from Peshawur to Cashmere via Mozufferabad, is now thrown open to officers going to Cashmere with their families.

* Officers and others, "who may receive the permission of Government to visit Cashmere, are directed to avoid the Mozufferabad road, taking either the Poonch or Bamber route, from Rawul Pindie and Peshawur, respectively."

No. 461 of 1853.—The Most Noble the Governor General in Council having had under consideration the Regulation by which persons not educated at the Medical College, but admitted into the service in the 3rd Class of native doctors, commence to draw pay only from the date on which they enter on the duties for which they are engaged, is pleased to lay down the following revised rules:

1. Persons admitted into the service as native doctors of the 3rd Class shall be allowed nett pay at rupees ten (10) per mensem, from the date on which the order entertaining them may be published at the station where they have been examined.

2. Batta at rupees five (5) a month, which is not given to these persons when absent from duty, shall be issued to them only from the date of their joining the Regiment, or the station hospital to which they may be attached.

3. One week shall be granted to these native doctors for preparing to march, and the requisite number of stages and halts, according to the route book, shall be allowed to them for joining.

No. 462 of 1853.—The following paragraph of a Military Letter, No. 52, from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to the Governor of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, dated 20th April, 1853, is published for general information:

"Referring to your Military Letter, dated 14th June, 1852, No. 91, paras. 96 and 97, we have now to state that Veterinary Surgeon Thomas Pritchard has been transferred from the Bengal to the Madras Establishment."

No. 463 of 1853.—Lieutenant Henry Alexander Dorin, of the 27th Regiment Native Infantry, Assistant Commissary General, is permitted to proceed to the Mauritius, on medical certificate, and to be absent from Bengal, on that account, for six months.

No. 464 of 1853.—The undermentioned Officer is permitted to proceed to Europe, on furlough:

Assistant Surgeon Joseph Tut- } On medical hill Glover, M. D., of the } certificate.

FORT WILLIAM
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

THE 6TH JUNE, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.

Notice is hereby given, that all the 5 per Cent Promissory Notes of this Government of 1825-26, which have not been already advertized for payment and are still outstanding, as also all the 5 per Cent Promissory Notes of 1829-30, will be discharged at the General Treasury on the 7th of September next, on which day the interest thereon will cease.

Any of the Notes however hereby advertized for payment, may be tendered to the Sub-Treasurers Fort William, Fort St. George and B. Bay, to several Residents, Collectors and other public Officers authorized to receive subscription to Government loans, and exchanged for acknowledgments of subscription to the 4 per Cent loan of 1842-43.

These acknowledgments, together with the Promissory Notes for which they may have been issued, shall, without fee or expense of any kind to the Proprietors, be transmitted to the Deputy Accountant General at Calcutta, who will forthwith cause to be prepared and issued to the parties entitled thereto, Promissory Notes in the 4 per Cent loan of 1842-43.

Prompt settlement of principal and interest at the rate of 5 per Cent per annum to the date of advertized discharge will be made with Proprietors, who may tender their Notes for transfer to the 4 per Cent loan of 1842-43; provided however that interest at the rate of 4 per Cent shall be allowed only from the date advertized for the discharge of the 5 per Cent Notes.

the fractional amount necessary to convert any Note into one of even hundreds in Company's Rupees at the prescribed rate of 16 Company's for 15 Sicca Rupees, will be either paid to or received from the Proprietor at his option.

It is further notified that, for the accommodation of Proprietors, who are not resident in India, and who have not furnished full powers to their Agents to receive the principal amount to be paid, the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council has authorized the Deputy Accountant General to allow the conditional transfer of their Notes to the 4 per Cent Loan of 1842-43, leaving it optional with the Proprietors to confirm the transfer or to require payment in cash; provided however that no notice disallowing a transfer will be received after six months from the present date.

NOTICE.

With reference to the draft of a proposed Act, which was read in Council for the first time on the 13th May, 1853, entitled "An Act for the management of the Post Office and for the regulation of the Duties of Postage," Messrs. R. C. Lepage and Co. have much satisfaction in referring their constituents and the Indian Public to CLAUSE 12, which provides for the circulation of Books, Pamphlets, &c., packed in prescribed form.

R. C. Lepage and Co. would take this opportunity to draw the particular attention of all those interested in the QUARTERLY ARMY LIST, published by them for the benefit of the Military Orphan Society, to the fact, that after the Act becomes law, the subscription to that publication will be as follows:

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION, TO INCLUDE POSTAGE TO ANY PART OF INDIA, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE, TWELVE RUPEES EIGHT ANNAS.

R. C. L. and Co. would, however, wish it to be generally known that to ensure this advantageous rate to subscribers it will be necessary for them [R. C. L. & Co.] to prepay the postage on every copy despatched, and that should the subscription including postage not be remitted when due in advance, copies will be forwarded to all such parties bearing postage under the banquy postage scale of charges by weight and distance.

R. C. L. and Co. have much pleasure in stating that the circulation of the Army List from its commencement in 1849 (with the draw-back of the postal restrictions) has been of the most encouraging kind, and as it may be reasonably anticipated that a large number who have hitherto withheld their support will enrol themselves as subscribers, R. C. L. and Co. will be glad to receive intimation of the same at an early date, in order to provide against disappointment, by printing such a number of each impression as will supply all requirements.

The whole impression of No. 16 for January last, was disposed of, and of No. 17 for April last, only a few copies remain unsold.

R. C. LEPAGE & CO.

MILITARY ORPHAN PRESS.

THE contract for printing between the Government of Bengal and the Military Orphan Society being about to cease, and a large quantity of Type and Material thereby set free, the Superintendent of the Military Orphan Press is authorized to inform the Public, that he is prepared to execute every description of work on the most moderate terms.

From the extent of the Stock, and the experience of the Establishment, the Superintendent is in a position to execute work with greater precision, neatness, despatch and economy than can be done at any other press in India.

In printing private documents the utmost discretion may be relied on.

Banks, Insurance Offices and Joint Stock Companies contracted with on the most liberal terms.

The Military Orphan Society, with a view to render their Establishment more complete and to keep pace with the growing demands of the Community, have indented on Europe for an extended supply of LITHOGRAPHIC MATERIALS, of the most recent and approved description. The Stock has been specially selected by the most eminent artist in India, and will enable the Press to execute every species of Lithographic Work on moderate terms, and in the manner required by the present advanced state of this important art. Maps, Illustrated Works, Music, and Plain and Ornamental Printing, &c., of every description will be executed with accuracy and despatch.

As the Press is exclusively intended for the benefit of those who are unable to support themselves, and has long enjoyed a high local reputation, it is believed that the patronage heretofore extended to it, will be continued by the liberal and enlightened Public of India.

Special Contracts for permanent Works or large orders, will be entered into.

All communications on business to be addressed to the Superintendent of the Military Orphan Press, No. 2, Hare Street.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

THE 6TH JUNE, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.

Notice is hereby given, that all the 5 per Cent Promissory Notes of this Government of 1825-26, which have not been already advertized for payment, and are still outstanding, as also all the 5 per Cent Promissory Notes of 1829-30, will be discharged at the General Treasury on the 7th of September next, on which day the interest thereon will cease.

Any of the Notes however hereby advertized for payment, may be tendered to the Sub-Treasurers at Fort William, Fort St. George and Bombay, to the several Residents, Collectors and other public Officers authorized to receive subscriptions to Government loans, and exchanged for acknowledgments of subscription to the 4 per Cent loan of 1842-43.

These acknowledgments, together with the Promissory Notes for which they may have been issued, shall, without fee or expense of any kind to the Proprietors, be transmitted to the Deputy Accountant General at Calcutta, who will forthwith cause to be prepared and issued to the parties entitled thereto, Promissory Notes in the 4 per Cent loan of 1842-43.

Prompt settlement of principal and interest at the rate of 5 per Cent per annum to the date of advertized discharge will be made with Proprietors, who may tender their Notes for transfer to the 4 per Cent loan of 1842-43; provided however that interest at the rate of 4 per Cent shall be allowed only from the date advertized for the discharge of the 5 per Cent Notes.

The fractional amount necessary to convert any Note into one of even hundreds in Company's Rupees at the prescribed rate of 16 Company's for 15 Sicca Rupees, will be either paid to or received from the Proprietor at his option.

It is further notified that, for the accommodation of Proprietors, who are not resident in India, and who have not furnished full powers to their Agents to receive the principal amount to be paid, the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council has authorized the Deputy Accountant General to allow the conditional transfer of their notes to the 4 per Cent Loan of 1842-43, leaving it optional with the Proprietors to confirm the transfer or to require payment in cash; provided however that no notice disallowing a transfer will be received after six months from the present date.

Published by order of the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council.

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 27th May, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 27th May, 1853.

Act No. — of 1853.

An Act to raise Funds by Assessment and Taxes for Municipal purposes, throughout the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca.

1. It is hereby enacted that from the day of 1853, Act No. IX. of 1848, is repealed, except as to anything done or omitted to be done under or according to the directions of the said Act, and except as to any assessment which shall have been made, or to any money which shall have become due, under the said Act, or as to any proceedings already commenced or hereafter to be commenced for the recovery thereof, or in respect of anything done or omitted as aforesaid. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall revive Act No. XII. of 1839, or Act No. XII. of 1840.

II. From the day of 185, an assessment, at a rate not exceeding ten per cent, to be fixed and determined from time to time as hereinafter mentioned, shall be levied either quarterly or half-yearly in advance upon the actual rent (in cases where rent is paid or payable) and upon the estimated rent (in cases where no rent is paid or payable) of all houses, shops, and other buildings, within the Settlement of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca, to be paid by the tenant or tenants, or occupier or occupiers of such houses, shops or other buildings charged; and houses, shops or other buildings, which shall have been used or occupied thirty days during any quarter, or sixty days during any half-year, shall be liable to be assessed at the rate aforesaid for the whole of that quarter or half-year as the case may be; and such assessment may be levied and demanded, and shall be payable at any time before the expiration of the quarter or half-year for which the same shall be charged, in the same manner as if the same had been demanded in advance.

III. Provided always that the following buildings shall be exempted from assessment under this Act:

1. Any house, shop or other building of which the actual or estimated rent per annum shall be less than six dollars, if it shall be the assessable property of the person or persons charged therewith.
2. Places of public worship.
3. Charitable institutions recognized by Government of the said Settlement.
4. Mills, drying and boiling houses and labourer's huts attached to plantations.
5. Barracks, cantonments, lines for soldiers and sepoy and officers' quarters situated therein.
6. Police offices and stations.
7. Jails and convict lines.
8. Public buildings.
9. Schools not used as private residences.

IV. From the day of 185, an assessment, at a rate not exceeding five per cent, to be fixed and determined from time to time as hereinafter mentioned, shall be levied half-yearly or annually upon the actual rent (in cases where rent is actually paid or payable), or on the estimated rent (in cases where no rent is paid or payable), of all lands situated within the said Settlement, and also of all lands situated in Province Wellesley, a dependency of Prince of Wales Island aforesaid, to be paid by the proprietor or his agent, or by the person or persons in charge of such lands; Provided always that no assessment shall be levied on any land of which the actual or estimated rent per annum shall be less than six dollars, if it shall be the sole assessable property of the person or persons charged, nor on any land belonging to, claimed by, or in the possession or occupation of the East India Company, nor on any cult rent paid to the said Company.

V. From and after the day of 185, a tax shall be levied, either quarterly or half-yearly in advance, on all carriages, waggons, carts, horses, ponies, mules, asses, and elephants, which are or may be kept or used in the said Settlement and its dependencies, to be paid by the owners or persons in charge of the same at the following rates per annum, namely:

For every four or three wheeled Carriage, Sp. Dr. 10
For every two wheeled Carriage,	5 0
For every Waggon drawn by man or horse,	4 0
For every cart drawn by any description of cattle,	4 0
For every cart drawn by man,	4 0
For every horse, pony, mule, ass, or mares,	2 0

For every elephant, and such taxes or any of them may be levied and demanded, and shall be payable at any time during the quarter or half-year for which the same shall be charged.

Provided always that no horses, ponies or mares or any carriage or other vehicles, shall be liable to be taxed under this Act, which shall have been imported into the said Settlement for sale, and not in use; provided that the same shall be in the hands of the importer thereof or his agents.

VI. It is provided further that the several vehicles and animals hereinafter mentioned shall be exempted from taxation under this Act, namely:

1. Waggons and carts belonging to Government, and employed exclusively in the public service.
2. Waggons and carts kept exclusively within estates or plantations, not used upon the public highways, having the name of the owner painted upon some conspicuous part thereof in letters not less than two inches in length, and registered at the office of the Collector of Assessment and Taxes.
3. Horses kept only for the removal of corpses.
4. Brood mares, foals and elephants kept within estates or plantations, and not brought or used upon the public roads or bridges.

VII. For the purposes of this Act, the dependency of Province Wellesley shall be considered as part and parcel of the station of Prince of Wales Island, and every matter and thing in the Act contained in any way relating to the said station of Prince of Wales Island, not otherwise specially provided for, shall be held to include and apply to the dependency of Province Wellesley aforesaid.

VIII. There shall be a Committee, to consist of five persons, for executing such of the powers of this Act as are not otherwise provided for at each of the stations of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca; two of the Members of each Committee shall be appointed by the Civil Authority for the time being of the said Settlement, and the other three Members thereof shall be elected at each of the said stations in manner hereinafter mentioned, and each such Committee, when so constituted, shall be styled the "MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE."

IX. Every person residing in the said Settlement whose annual payment of assessment on lands and houses, under this Act, shall amount to the sum of twenty dollars and upwards shall be entitled to vote in the election of the said three last mentioned Members of the Municipal Committee, and shall be qualified to be a Member of the Municipal Committee of the station at which he shall at the time of election be residing.

X. All elections under this Act shall be under the management of the Sheriff of the said Settlement, who shall appoint a deputy to act for him at each of the stations of the said Settlement at which he shall not himself be present and every such deputy while so acting for the Sheriff shall have the same powers and duties as the Sheriff, with respect to the station in which he shall be acting.

XI. The elective Members of the Municipal Committees shall be chosen on any day within the first week of December in each year, such day to be appointed by the Sheriff or his deputies; of which day, and also of the place of election, the said Sheriff or his deputy shall give public notice thirty days at least before the day of election.

XII. The Sheriff or his deputies shall cause to be prepared in each year correct lists of the persons qualified to vote at each of the stations of the said Settlement, which lists shall be published and shall be open for public inspection at the office of the Sheriff or his deputies between hours of ten in the morning and three in the afternoon on every day, Sundays excepted, between the 1st day of October and the day of election, when the said lists shall be taken to the place of election, for the use of the said Sheriff or his deputies. Provided always, that the said lists shall may be revised or amended by the Court of the said Settlement on the application of any person qualified to vote at any such station provided that such application be made at least five days before the day of election. For the purpose of preparing such lists, it shall be lawful for the said Sheriff or his deputies at any time or times to inspect all assessment books, accounts, records and papers kept by or in the custody or control of the Collector of Assessment and Taxes appointed under this Act.

XIII. At the time and place appointed for election, the Sheriff or his deputy shall attend with a closed box with an opening for the reception of voting tickets. Every voting ticket shall bear the signature of the voter and the names of the persons for whom he shall vote in the following form, namely:—I, the undersigned, being a rate-payer and voter, duly qualified, do hereby give my vote for _____ as a Member of the Municipal Committee for the _____ day of _____.

XIV. Every voter having written on his voting ticket the names of the persons for whom he wishes to vote, and having signed the same, shall personally attend at the place of election, and shall deliver his voting tickets to the Sheriff or his deputy, who, on being satisfied of the identity of the person tendering the voting ticket with the person whose signature it bears, shall deposit such voting ticket in the enclosed box.

XV. As soon as the election is completed, the Sheriff or his deputy, in the presence of the voters or such of them as shall be present, shall ascertain the number of votes given for each person, and the Sheriff or his deputy shall thereupon publicly declare the names of the persons for whom the greatest number of votes has been given, and shall declare such persons to be duly elected Members of the Municipal Committee of the Station at which such election took place.

XVI. In case the persons so elected, or any of them, shall refuse to serve as Members of the Municipal Committee, the Sheriff or his deputies shall, immediately after such refusal, declare the name or names of the person or persons for whom the next greatest number of votes has been given, and shall declare such last mentioned person or persons to be duly elected a Member or Members of the said Municipal Committee, in the place of such person or persons first elected, who shall refuse to serve as aforesaid. Provided always, that no person shall be competent to be elected a Member of the Municipal Committee of either of the said stations unless the number of votes given in his favor shall exceed ten.

XVII. The names of the persons elected at every election shall be certified by the Sheriff or his deputies to the Chief Civil Authority of the said Settlement, who shall cause notice thereof, together with the names of the Members appointed by the said Chief Civil Authority, to be given in a newspaper at each of the said stations, in which a newspaper is published, and at such of the stations in which no newspaper is published in such public manner as the said Chief Civil Authority shall think fit.

XVIII. In case it shall be found impracticable to obtain three elective Members to serve upon the Municipal Committee at any of the said stations, from refusal to act, failure of election or otherwise, or if any vacancy from any cause whatever shall happen before the month of December in any one year, in any of the said Municipal Committees, it shall be lawful for the Chief Civil Authority of the said Settlement at the station at which he shall then happen to be present, and at the other stations for the Resident Councillors thereof respectively, to nominate and appoint such other person or persons, being rate-payers, to be a Member or Members of the Municipal Committee, at each such station, and such appointment shall be as valid and effectual as if the person or persons so appointed had been elected in manner hereinbefore provided for.

XIX. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall enter upon their office on the _____ day of _____ of each year, and shall hold their office regularly for one year, or until their successors shall be duly constituted.

XX. Of the two Members of each of the said Municipal Committees to be appointed by the Chief Civil Authority of the said Settlement under Section VIII. of this Act, one shall be the Resident Councillor of the station at which such Committee shall be constituted, and such Resident Councillor shall be the President of such Committee. In the absence of the President, such other Member of the said Committee as shall be chosen by the Members present shall act as Chairman of the Meeting of the Committee. On all questions on which the Members of the Committee present are equally divided in opinion, the President, or, in his absence, the Chairman, shall have a second or casting vote. Three Members shall be necessary to constitute a Meeting.

XXI. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall fix and determine, at such time as they shall think fit, the rate or rates of Assessment on houses and lands provided for in Sections II. and IV. of this Act, to be levied during each year, and the rate or rates so fixed and determined by them, shall be published in general information, and shall be the rate of assessment for the year indicated.

XXII. For the purpose of assessment under this Act the Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall fix the amount of the estimated rent of all houses, shops, and other buildings, and of all lands situated within the said settlement, in all cases where no rent is paid or payable.

XXIII. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall have power to remit or refund any part or portion of any assessment paid by any person on any house, shop or other building, levied under authority of this Act, in any case of partial occupancy in which it shall appear to such Committee expedient or desirable so to do.

XXIV. In order to enable the Municipal Committee to arrive at a fair valuation of the estimated rent of any lands liable to assessment under this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committee to require the proprietor, agent or person in charge of any lands, to furnish them with such returns of the nature, extent and expense of cultivation of such lands, and of the quantity and value of all produce derived therefrom, including sugar, rum, and molasses, but not including minerals, as the said Municipal Committee shall think fit; and for the like purpose it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committee, or any Member or Members thereof, or any person or persons appointed by them for that purpose, at any time, to enter on and inspect such lands, after having given two days previous notice of such their intention to the proprietor or person or persons in charge of such lands; and any proprietor or agent or person in charge of any such lands, who shall refuse or shall fail to furnish any such return for the space of one month from the day on which he shall have been required so to do, or who shall knowingly make a false or incorrect return, and any person who shall hinder, obstruct or prevent any Member of the Municipal Committee, or any person appointed by the said Municipal Committee as aforesaid, from entering upon or inspecting any such land, shall be liable, on conviction before two Justices of the Peace, to pay a fine, not exceeding two hundred dollars.

XXV. In case the proprietor, agent or person in charge of any land, or the tenant or occupier of any house, shop or other building, shall feel himself aggrieved by the valuation or amount of the estimated rent fixed by the Municipal Committee of any property for the assessment where, or he shall be chargeable under this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committee with the consent of the person so feeling himself aggrieved to refer the matter in dispute to the decision of three indifferent persons, one to be appointed by the said Municipal Committee, one by the person so aggrieved, and the third by the two persons so chosen, and the decision of a majority of such persons shall be final and binding on the said Municipal Committee, and also on the person so feeling himself aggrieved as aforesaid.

XXVI. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall appoint an officer under them, who shall be called the "collector of assessment and taxes," and such other officers as they may deem necessary for collecting or levying the assessment and taxes herein mentioned, and may assign such duties to such collector or other officers, and may prescribe such rules and take such necessity for the due execution of the duties of such collector or other officers as they may deem expedient; and such collector and other officers shall receive such salary or remuneration to be paid out of the said assessment and taxes, as the said Municipal Committee shall from time to time appoint. And the said Collector shall keep a register of all houses, shops and other buildings, and also of all lands liable to assessment under this Act, showing the road, street, or district, wherein the same are situated, the number, and name of the owner or occupier thereof, and the amount of the actual or estimated rent thereof respectively, with such other information as the Municipal Committee may direct, and such register shall be open to the inspection of any rate-payer, on such days, and at such times, as the Municipal Committee shall fix and determine. The said Municipal Committee shall have power to compound with the proprietor, agent, or person in charge of any lands, and with the tenant or occupier of any house, shop or other building for any assessment to which the same may be liable under this Act, and also to compound with any proprietor or person in charge of any vehicle or horse kept for the purpose of being let out to hire, for the payment of any tax to which such person may be liable under this Act.

XXVII. All monies levied, collected or received under and by virtue of this Act at the said stations, shall form a fund, which shall be called the "Municipal Fund" of the station in which the same shall have been so levied, collected or received, and the same shall be under the direction, management and control of the Municipal Committee of such station, and such Municipal Fund shall be applied at the said stations respectively, and to any dependency thereof, to the following purposes; namely, to the payment of the salaries of the collector of assessment and taxes, and the other Officers appointed for the collection of such assessment and taxes; to the payment and maintenance of efficient Police; to the payment of the Police Establishments of the sitting magistrate, superintendent of Police (but not including salary of any such sitting magistrate); to constructing, renewing, repairing, cleansing and upholding all public roads, streets and other thoroughfares, and public drains, cellars, k, canals, channels and water-courses, and public bridges, jetties, landing-places, quays, reducts, sluices, sewers and sluice gates; to lighting and watching of the said stations; and to such other purposes as may be considered by the said Municipal Committee to be of public utility, or necessary to the comfort, security, protection and well-being of the inhabitants. Provided always that all roads and bridges leading to any Government building, or to any public building in the use or occupation of the Government of the said Settlement, or to any place of public worship or charitable Institution, recognized by Government, shall be deemed to be public roads and bridges within the meaning of this Act.

XXVIII. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall have power to call upon all persons residing therein to furnish them, at such time or times as they shall think fit, with a return or returns of the number of vehicles and animals specified in Section V. of this Act, belonging to such persons or in their possession, or kept or used by them, whether liable to be taxed or not, during any quarter or half-year for which such return shall be required; and any person who shall refuse, neglect or omit to send such return, or who shall knowingly give a attorney or law agent, shall, on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

XXXIX. Every proprietor of any carriage, phaeton, buggy, waggon, cart or other vehicle intended or kept for the purpose of being let to hire at any of the said stations, shall between the first and fifteenth day of January, and between the first and fifteenth day of July of each year, attend with their respective vehicles at the office of the Collector of Assessment and Taxes, for the purpose of having such vehicle registered and numbered, and of receiving a license to let out the same to hire; and the said Collector is hereby required to grant a license for every such vehicle, and to register the same, and to cause a number to be painted in legible figures on some conspicuous part of such vehicle; and any person who shall neglect to appear and cause such vehicle to be so registered, and any person who shall let out any vehicle to hire without first obtaining such license, and any person who shall remove, alter, deface or destroy such number from any such vehicle without the consent and authority of such Collector, shall, on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, on the complaint of the Collector, for every such offence, be liable to pay a fine, not exceeding twenty dollars.

XXX. Any person who shall sell, transfer or dispose of, or pledge or mortgage to another, and any person who shall receive in pledge or mortgage any license to let out any vehicle granted under the authority of this Act, shall on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to pay a fine not exceeding twenty dollars.

XXXI. Whenever any person, being the proprietor of any vehicle intended or kept for the purpose of being let out to hire, shall sell or dispose of any such vehicle, such person shall report the same, and deliver up his license to the Collector of Assessment and Taxes, and shall, together with the purchaser, attend to have such sale or transfer registered by such Collector, and no sale or transfer of any such vehicle shall be recognized or admitted in any Court of Justice, until the same shall have been so registered.

XXXII. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Assessment and Taxes to grant a license to a proprietor of any vehicle intended or kept for the purpose of being let out to hire, and to register and number the same, at any time after the fifteenth day of January and fifteenth day of July in any year on the application of the proprietor thereof; provided the tax to which such vehicle may be liable shall have been first paid.

XXXIII. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Assessment and Taxes to refuse to grant a license, and to refuse to register and number any vehicle intended to be let out to hire, until the proprietor or person in charge thereof shall have paid the amount of taxes due by such person either for the said or any other vehicle or animal liable to be taxed under this Act.

XXXIV. When payment of any assessment or tax payable under this Act shall not be duly made, the Collector of Assessment and Taxes may notify the same in writing to any Justice of the Peace, who shall thereupon summon the person or persons so in default to appear before him to answer such charge, and if upon such person or persons appearing or failing to appear after having been duly summoned, such Justice shall be satisfied that due diligence has been used to obtain payment of such assessment or tax, and that the same has been improperly withheld, then such Justice shall or may issue a warrant under his hand for levying the amount of such assessment or tax, together with the costs of such proceeding, by seizure and sale of the goods and chattels of the person or persons so committing default, or of any goods or chattels found in the house, shop or building charged, and any growing crops or produce or any goods or chattels found upon the land charged to whomsoever belonging; and in all such cases the overplus, if any, after deducting the amounts adjudged, and the expenses of such seizure and sale shall be paid to the person or persons in whose possession such goods, chattels, growing crops or produce shall have been found.

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Assessment and Taxes, under authority of the Municipal Committee in lieu of proceeding against defaulters by warrant as aforesaid, to sue any such defaulters in his own name as such Collector, for the recovery of any assessment or taxes in any Court of Courts of Justice to which such defaulters shall or may be amenable.

XXXVI. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall, at the end of every year, draw up a statement, showing the nature and amount of the receipts and disbursements of the Municipal Fund for that year, and such statement shall be published for general information.

XXXVII. In consideration of the services to be performed by the Municipal Committee at each of the said stations, each elective Member thereof shall be exempted from the payment of assessment on the dwelling-house in his household occupation, and from the payment of all taxes under this Act for the year during which he shall serve as a Member of such Committee.

XXXVIII. In case any person shall feel himself aggrieved by any charge or demand for assessment or tax made upon him under authority of this Act, or by any act or proceeding of the Municipal Committee or Collector of Assessment and Taxes, or by any decision or order of any Justice of the Peace, for anything alleged to be done or omitted to be done by such person, in pursuance of this Act, such person shall be at liberty to appeal to the Court of Judicature of the said Settlement, by petition, stating shortly the grounds of his appeal to be verified by affidavit, and the said Court shall allow or refuse such appeal or proceed therein in such summary way as it shall deem meet. Provided always that no appeal shall be allowed by the said Court against any demand or charge for assessment or tax unless the amount of such assessment or tax shall have been first paid; nor shall an appeal be allowed in any case, unless the appellant shall have satisfied the said Court that he has given ten days' previous notice of his intention to appeal, to the person or persons against whose demand, charge, act or decision such appeal is preferred; and provided also that no appeal shall be heard by the said Court unless the sum shall have been prosecuted within six months from the date on which such notice shall have been given.

XXXIX. In case of the non-payment of any fine imposed by any Justice of the Peace, in any case of conviction under this Act, it shall be lawful for such Justice, in his discretion, to issue a warrant under his hand for levying the amount of such fine, by seizure and sale of the goods and chattels of the person so convicted or to commit such person to Her Majesty's Jail, there to be kept and imprisoned for any period, not exceeding six calendar months.

XL. No charge or demand of assessment or tax made under authority of this Act, shall be impeached, affected, set aside or quashed by reason of any mistake in the name of any person liable to pay the same, or of any thing chargeable with assessment or tax, or of any mistake in the amount of assessment or tax charged, provided the directions of this Act be in substance and effect complied with, and no proceedings or other matter or thing had or done under this Act shall be quashed or set aside for want of form in any Court or Courts of Justice.

XLII. No proceedings by seizure and sale of goods, chattels, growing crops or produce under authority of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, schedule, summons, notice of demand, warrant, inventory or other process relating thereto; nor shall he be deemed a trespasser from the beginning on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by such party.

XLIII. All fines and forfeitures imposed, and all fees and poundage levied by the Court of Quarter Sessions, and by or before any Justice of the Peace of the said Settlement, shall be paid by the proper officer or officers receiving the same, to the Collector of Assessment and Taxes of the station at which the same shall have been imposed, levied or received, to be carried to the credit of the Municipal Fund of such station, and to be applied and used for the general purposes of this Act.

XLIII. This Act shall come into operation on the day of 1853; but the acts and proceedings of the Municipal Committee and the Collector of Assessments at each of the said stations, appointed under Act No. IX. of 1849, shall nevertheless be good and valid, and they shall continue in office until their respective successors shall be constituted or appointed under the provisions of this Act.

XLIV. In construing this Act all words used in the singular number shall be held to include several persons and things, and words in the plural number shall be held to include the singular number; and all words importing the masculine gender shall extend and be applied to females as well as males, unless there is something in the context inconsistent with such construction.

Ordered, that the draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said draft be reconsidered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India, after the 27th day of August next.

J. P. GRANT,

Secy to the Govt. of India

Fort William, Home Department, Legislature,
The 27th May, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 27th of May, 1853:

Act No. — of 1853.

An Act to confer certain powers on the Municipal Committees for improving the street Stations in the Straits of Malacca.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Municipal Committee of each of the stations of Penang,

Singapore and Malacca should be invested with the powers hereinafter mentioned; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

I. The said Municipal Committees may, subject to confirmation or disallowance by the Governor of the Settlement of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca, nominate, appoint and employ, respectively, such surveyors, inspectors and other necessary officers and servants, as may be necessary or proper for the execution of the powers hereby vested in them; and such surveyors, inspectors, officers and servants shall receive such salaries as to the Governor of the Straits shall seem meet.

II. The management and control over all the streets and roads within the said stations of the said Settlement, existing at the time of the passing of this Act, and of all parts of the said stations which shall hereafter become streets and roads, and the pavements and other materials therein, and all erections and buildings, and rails, implements or other things provided for the said streets and roads by or under the authority of the Governor of the Straits, or by the Magistrates of the Settlements, or by the said Municipal Committees; and also the management and control of the public tanks, aqueducts, and canals, and of all sewers and drains, whether public or private, now made or hereafter to be made, within the said stations, are hereby vested in the said Municipal Committees for the purposes of this Act.

III. The said Municipal Committees, by and with the consent of the Governor of the Straits, may lay out, make, build and construct streets within the said stations, and may alter and widen narrow streets, regularising and to the compensation of owners of lands, which may be required to be vested in the said Municipal Committees for any such purposes.

IV. The said Municipal Committees, with the consent and approbation of the Governor of the Straits, shall pave and water each of the public streets, existing in the said stations at the time of the passing of this Act, or at any future time, as they shall think fit, and it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to excavate and provide convenient tanks or cists of water through the said stations, and to sink wells, and lay, erect, and place pipes, gutters, conduits, and pumps, in any of the said streets, and may remove and alter the same, when and as the said Municipal Committees, respectively, shall think proper.

V. The said Municipal Committees, by and with the consent of the said Governor of the Straits, may, by agreement or in conformity with the provisions of Act XXII. of 1847, purchase, or take absolutely, or on lease, for such terms as they may think fit, any water works, streams of water, lands, fixtures or other property, which the said Municipal Committees may deem it necessary to purchase or take for any work or purpose, which they are required or authorized to do and execute under this Act, or the Act No. — of 1851; and when the said Municipal Committees have thus purchased any lands for the purposes of this Act, otherwise than with the represent of the owners and occupiers thereof, they shall, in exercising the powers so given, be subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in the said Act, No. XXII. of 1847, and the said Municipal Committees shall make to the owners and occupiers of, and all other parties interested in any such lands taken for the purposes of this Act, full compensation for the value of the lands so taken, and for all damages sustained by such owners, occupiers and other parties by reason of the exercise as regards such lands, of the powers vested in the Municipal Committees by this Act, and the amount of such compensation shall be determined in the manner provided by the said Act, No. XXII. of 1847, for determining questions of compensation with regard to lands purchased or taken under the provisions thereof; and all provisions of the said Act, No. XXII. of 1847, shall be applicable to determine the amount of any such compensation, and to enforce the payment or other satisfaction thereof. Provided, and it is enacted, that on the application of the provisions of Act No. XXII. of 1847, to any of the purposes of this Act, the same shall be read and interpreted, as if, instead of any word or words therein used, importing a Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate or Magistrates of Calcutta, words had been used designating a Justice or Justices of the Peace of the said Settlement; and as if instead of any words therein used, importing the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, or any Judge or Judges of the said Court, words had been used designating the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca, or the Recorder of the said Court; and as if instead of any word or words therein used, importing the Sheriff or Coroner of Calcutta, words had been used importing the Sheriff or Coroner of the said Settlement, or any deputy to be appointed by such Sheriff; and as if instead of words importing a Jury of Calcutta, words had been used in the said Act importing a Jury of the said Settlement, or any of the said stations there.

VI. The Municipal Committees, by and with the consent of the Governor of the Straits, may sell or dispose of any lands or other property vested in or acquired by them under the powers herein contained, which it may appear to the Municipal Committees may be properly sold or disposed of, and for completing and carrying out such sale of lands into effect, the Municipal Committees may make and execute a conveyance of the lands sold and disposed of as aforesaid, unto the purchaser, or as he shall direct; and such conveyance shall be under the hands of three of the Members of the Municipal Committees, and under the seal of the Municipal Committees, and a receipt, under the hands of three of the Members of the Municipal Committees, shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser, of any such lands for the purchase money in such receipt expressed to be received, and the money so arise from such sale shall be applied to any of the purposes of this Act as the Municipal Committees shall think fit.

VII. The said Municipal Committees may, from time to time, as they shall see fit, widen, deepen, enlarge, alter, arch over, amend, clean and scour out all or any of the sewers or drains, within the said stations as may be necessary, and also cleanse and drain off into any sewers or drains, or otherwise, unto all stagnant pools, ditches, tanks and other receptacles of foul water and filth, existing within the said stations, whether the same be the private property of any person or persons, or otherwise; and the said Municipal Committees, if they shall think fit, may take up, stop, fill in, and discontinue any sewers or drains, which they shall deem excess or unnecessary; provided always that the expenses incurred in respect of any such works done or executed on the private property of any person, if not defrayed by such person on demand thereof, may be recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such person; and any two of the said Members of the Municipal Committees may issue their warrant of distress accordingly.

VIII. Every Municipal Committee and the Surveyor to the Municipal Committees, with such subordinate Officers or persons as they may require, shall, when it shall be necessary or convenient for the purpose of making any survey or examination of any sewers or drains, or of making or repairing, or cleansing any sewers, drains, or works within the said stations, or of carrying into execution any of the powers entrusted to the Municipal Committees by this Act, have full power and authority, at all reasonable hours in the day time, to enter, examine and lay open, or to direct their subordinate officers to enter, examine, and lay open, any house, building or other erection, or any lands, without being liable in any action at law or suit in equity, or any other legal proceedings or molestation whatsoever, for or on account of such entry, examination, or works, or of any thing done, or to be done in any part of such house, building, erection or land, in pursuance of this Act. Provided always, that except in cases of emergency, none of the persons above mentioned shall enter, examine or lay open any house or building or other erection, or lands which may be occupied at the time, unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without previously giving the said occupier twenty-four hours notice of their intended entry, and of the object thereof. Provided also, that compensation shall be made for any damage occasioned by such entry and works to all persons other than the owners and occupiers of any land or building in respect of which any private drain or sewer, or the state of drainage shall be inspected, cleansed or repaired; and other than the owners or occupiers of any premises where any nuisance may exist, and other than the person who may have caused such nuisance; and provided also that in case no nuisance shall be found to exist in or on the house, building or other erection, or lands so entered, examined and laid open as aforesaid, the said Municipal Committees shall, out of the rates and taxes aforesaid, cause the said house, building or other erection, or lands, to be restored to the same state and condition in all respect as the same were in before they were so entered, examined or laid open.

IX. If any house, building or wall, or any thing affixed thereon, within the limits of the said stations be deemed by the Municipal Committees, or their Surveyor, to be in a ruinous state, or badly built, or likely to fall and also dangerous to passengers or any occupiers of neighbouring buildings, such Surveyor shall immediately cause a proper board or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers, and shall cause notice in writing to be given to the owner of such house, building, or wall, or other thing, if he be known and resident within the said limits, and shall also cause such notice to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of the said premises, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof (if any), requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such house, building, wall, or other thing, as the case shall require; and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure such house, building, wall, or other thing, within the space of three days after such notice has been given or put up as aforesaid, and complete the same as speedily as the nature of the case will admit, the said Municipal Committees shall, with all convenient speed, cause all or so much of such house, building, wall or other thing, as shall be in a ruinous condition, or badly built, or likely to fall, and also dangerous as aforesaid, to be taken down, repaired, rebuilt or otherwise secured in such manner as shall be requisite; and all the expenses of putting up every such fence, and of taking down, repairing, rebuilding or securing such building, wall, or other thing, shall be paid by the owner thereof if such owner can be found within the said limits, and if, on demand of the expenses aforesaid, he neglect or refuse to pay the same, then such expenses may be levied by distress on the goods and chattels of the owner of the said house, building, wall, or other thing, and any two Members of the Municipal Committees may issue their warrant of distress accordingly.

X. If any such house, building, wall, or other thing, or any part of the same, be pulled down by virtue of the powers aforesaid, the Municipal Committees may sell the materials thereof, or so much of the same as shall be pulled down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred in respect of such house, building, wall, or other thing, and the Municipal Committees shall restore any overplus arising from such sale to the owner of each house, building, wall, or other thing, on demand; nevertheless the Municipal Committees, although they sell such materials for the purposes aforesaid, shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due, after the application of the proceeds of such sale, as are heretofore given to them for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

XI. The said Municipal Committees, by and with consent of the Governor or of the Straits, may construct, make, alter, and lay, or cause to be constructed, made, and laid, such reservoirs, canals, aqueducts, channels, tanks, sewers, drains, bridges, banks, conduits, machinery, engines, waste-gates, stop-valves, stop-cocks, sluices, tunnels, water-pipes, and other works as shall, in their opinion, be necessary and proper for obtaining water and supplying the same to the said stations, and for the efficient clearing and clearing of the said stations, and for the properly flushing and cleansing out such sewers, drains, or across all or any of the streets, thoroughfares, or dedicated to the public use or not, and if needful through and across all under-ground cellars, and vaults which they may find under any of the said streets, docks, or wharves, as may be; and also to cause such and so many rings and openings to be made or left in the sides of the said sewers, as will be sufficient for the making or branching any drain or drains from any or all of the houses, built, and which may probably be built, adjoining or near hereto, into any of the said sewers, as the said Municipal Committees shall think necessary for that purpose; and in case it shall be found necessary for completing any of the aforesaid works to build, carry, or continue the same in, into, through, or over any enclosed lands, or other place not being a public way, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to build, carry, or continue the same in, into, through, or over the said lands or other places accordingly, and the said Municipal Committees shall cause such sewers to communicate with and empty themselves into any public river, stream, canal or water-course, whether within or without the said stations, or shall cause the refuse from such sewers to be conveyed by an appropriate channel to the most convenient site for its deposit, collection, and sale, and its application as manure for agricultural purposes or otherwise, as they shall deem most expedient, but so that the same shall in no case become a public nuisance or annoyance to the neighbourhood.

XII. If any building within the said settlement, by reason of abandonment, or of disputed ownership or other cause, shall remain untenanted, and thereby become a receptacle for thieves and vagabonds, and be complained of by the neighbours as a nuisance, the Municipal Committees shall cause notice in writing to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of such building, requiring those concerned therein, whoever they may be, to take down or to secure the said building, in such manner as that strangers may not have access thereto; and if such notice be not complied with within a reasonable time from the date of such notice, the said Municipal Committees shall cause the necessary work to be executed, and all expenses incurred by the Municipal Committees in the execution of such work, whereby the nuisance caused by such building may have been removed, shall be levied in the manner heretofore provided in Section IX. of this Act.

XIII. The Municipal Committees shall cause all hedges lining public roads and foot paths to be cut and clipped, so that they may not exceed a height of six feet, or overhang the road in a manner to form obstructions to the traffic thereon, and to damage the said roads, and shall give notice to owners and proprietors of such hedges to reduce the same when requisite, and in the event of such notice not being complied with, within one week from the date of such notice, the Municipal Committees or their officers may cause the said hedges to be cut and clipped in the manner required, and all expenses incurred in so cutting and clipping shall be paid by the owners and proprietors of the said hedges, and in the event of the said expenses not being paid by the said owners or proprietors, within three days from the date of demand, the same shall be levied by distress on the goods and chattels of the said owners and proprietors.

XIV. The Municipal Committees shall cause to be exactly defined the boundary limits of the towns of Penang, Singapore and Malacca, and shall cause a notification to be published in the local papers, so defining such limits, and from the date of the passing of this Act, the said Municipal Committees shall prevent any dwelling-house, shed or other building, which shall hereafter be erected within such limits, from being covered with attars, leaves or grass, and the said Municipal Committees, or their collector, may cause the coverings of any such buildings so erected, after the passing of this Act, and so covered, as aforesaid, to be removed at the expense of the person or persons so covering the same, such expenses to be recovered in the manner provided by Section IX. of this Act.

XV. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees, their collector, surveyor, or other officer, subject to the restrictions in this Act contained, to enter upon the lands of any corporation or person adjoining to, or being within the distance of one hundred yards of the works by this Act authorized to be made, or any part thereof, for the purpose of depositing upon such lands, or any part thereof, any soil, gravel, sand, lime, brick, stone, or other materials, or for any other purposes connected with the formation of the said works, without making any previous payment, tender, or deposit, the said Municipal Committees, their collector, surveyor, or other officer, doing as little damage as may be in the exercise of the several powers hereby granted to them, and making compensation for such temporary occupation or temporary damage of the said lands to the owners and occupiers thereof according to value, and as often as any such temporary occupation shall be taken on any such temporary damage done, and making compensation to the owners also for the permanent injury (if any) to such lands; and in case the parties differ respecting the amount of the compensation, or the respective shares of several claimants of compensation, then and in every such case the said disputes respectively shall be settled and adjusted by arbitration, or by the verdict of a jury summoned and assembled in manner provided in Act No. XXII. of 1847, to be interpreted in the manner pointed out by Section V. of this Act: Provided always that before the said Municipal Committees make any such temporary use as aforesaid of the lands adjoining or lying near to the said works, they shall give fourteen days notice of such their intention to the owners and occupiers of such lands, and shall separate and set apart by sufficient fences so much of the lands as shall be required to be used as aforesaid from the other lands adjoining thereto.

XVI. The said Municipal Committees, when executing any works hereby authorized to be made, shall, at their own expense, make and provide a sufficient number of convenient roads, ways, watering-places, wells, water-courses, drains and channels, for the traction and for the use of the adjoining lands, and for facilitating the same in these parts where the present roads, ways, watering-places, wells, water-courses, drains, and channels shall and may be taken away, or interrupted, injured, or rendered inconvenient or useless by reason of the execution of the said works, and in case of any difference arising between the said Municipal Committees and the owners of such adjoining lands, such difference shall be settled by arbitration, or by the verdict of a jury summoned and assembled in manner provided in Act No. XXII. of 1847, to be interpreted as aforesaid.

XVII. The said Municipal Committees shall make full compensation out of the rates and taxes to be levied by them to all persons sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in the Municipal Committees, or their officers or servants, under and by virtue of this Act.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to direct any person or persons before any Court of Justice of the Peace for any nuisance whatsoever, which shall be permitted, suffered, or committed, within the said station, and to order proceedings to be taken for the recovery of any penalties, and for the punishment of any persons offending against the provisions of this Act, and to direct and order the expenses of such prosecutions and other proceedings to be paid and borne by and out of the funds placed at their disposal, under the provisions of this or any other Act.

XIX. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees, if they shall not think fit to take any other proceedings prescribed by this Act, to prefer any bill or indictment or information, or to take any other proceedings against any person who shall obstruct or molest the said Municipal Committees, or their collector, surveyor, or other officer or servant, or any workman, or other person employed by them in the performance and execution of their or his duty, under, or by virtue, or in consequence of this Act, or who shall steal, take, or carry away, or wilfully damage or injure any property, article, or thing belonging to the said Municipal Committees, and in every such case it shall be sufficient to state generally the property, article, or thing, in respect of which such proceeding shall have been taken, to be the property of the said Municipal Committees.

XX. It shall be lawful for any of the Municipal Committees, their collector, surveyor, superintendents, officers, or any servants or persons employed by them, and for any Superintendent of Police or policeman employed in the said stations, and any other person or persons whom he or they shall call on for their assistance, without any summons or warrant, or other authority than this Act, to seize and detain any unknown person who shall commit any offence against the provisions of this Act, and to take him immediately to a Police station, where he shall be detained in custody or bail until he can be taken before any Justice of the Peace, who is hereby required to proceed and act with respect to such offender according to the provisions of this Act.

XXI. The Municipal Committees, or any one of their Members, or any person appointed by them for that purpose, may at all reasonable times, with or without assistants, enter into and inspect any market, building, shop, stall, or place, kept or used for the sale of butcher's meat, poultry, fish, or vegetables, or as a slaughter-house, and may examine any animal, carcass, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetables, which may be therein; and in case any animal, carcass, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetables, appear to be intended for the food of man, and to be unfit for such food, may seize, remove and destroy the same at the expense of the owner thereof, or the owner, occupier, or farmer of any such public market, bazar, or slaughter-house, or private shop, or stall, with the stations wherein the same shall be exposed, or allowed to be exposed for sale.

XXII. The Municipal Committees, or their surveyor, shall have full power and authority to remove or order the removal of any wall, fence, rail, post, or other obstruction or encroachment erected or being without lawful excuse in any street, or in or over any drain, sewer, or aqueduct within the said stations.

XXIII. When any private tank or low marshy ground shall appear to the Municipal Committees to be offensive to the neighbourhood or unwholesome, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to require, by notice in writing, the owner thereof to cleanse or fill up the same; and if the said tank shall remain uncleansed or not filled up for seven days after such notice, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to enter into and upon the adjoining lands, and cleanse or fill up the said tank as they shall think fit, and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such tank, to be recovered in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XXIV. The Municipal Committees may affix on or to the wall of any house or compound, or in or to any wall within the said stations, as they shall think fit, any board or metal plate to indicate the name of the street in which such house, compound, or wall is situate, or any lamp for the purpose of lighting the street.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees, or their subordinate officers, as they shall think fit, to kill and destroy, or to order to be killed and destroyed, all dogs that may be found loose in the said streets, and not accompanying their owners or some person in charge of them.

XXVI. The said Municipal Committees shall, so far as the funds at their disposal will admit, keep in good and sufficient repair every street now or at any future time existing in the said stations.

XXVII. When any of the streets, sewers, or drains in the said stations are being made, or shall be under repair, the Municipal Committees or their surveyor, or other subordinate officers, shall take proper precautions against danger by standing on and protecting the adjoining houses, and shall fix and place or cause to be fixed and placed, such and so many bars, chains, or other means, or in any of the said streets to prevent the passing and repassing of carriages, carts or other vehicles, cattle or horses, during the time of such works and repairs being carried on as shall be necessary; and the said Municipal Committees, and their said surveyor, shall cause any sewer or drain or other works, during the construction or repair thereof by them, to be well and sufficiently lighted during the night to prevent accidents.

XXVIII. The said Municipal Committees, or Municipal Committee, so far as the funds at their disposal will admit, shall provide lamps and stations for lighting such parts of the said stations as the said Municipal Committees shall consider to require the same, and shall keep the said lamps in fit order for public use, and shall keep and employ a sufficient number of persons to cleanse, prepare, repair, and light the same, and shall also, from time to time, as shall be required, increase or otherwise alter the number and situation of the said lamps, as to them shall appear necessary for the lighting of the said station.

XXIX. The said Municipal Committees, and their said surveyor and other officers, shall cause all the public streets of the said stations, together with the foot pavements, or foot paths therein from time to time to be properly swept and cleansed, and all dust, dirt, soil, ashes, rubbish and filth of every sort, which may be found thereon to be collected and removed therefrom at convenient hours and times, and shall cause all or any of the privies, cess-pits, and drains within the said stations to be cleansed and emptied in a sufficient and proper manner by the owners or occupiers of the premises; and the said surveyor, or other subordinate officer of the Municipal Committees, shall give such orders and directions to the owners and occupiers aforesaid as to the said surveyor or other officer as aforesaid, acting under the orders and control of the said Municipal Committees, shall appear proper and necessary, and the said Municipal Committees may, in their discretion, order and direct when, and in what places, and how, and in what manner, the dust, dirt, soil, night-soil, ashes, rubbish and filth collected in the said stations shall be deposited and disposed of.

XXX. The owners of any private drains in the said stations shall by providing proper traps or other coverings, or by ventilation, or by such other ways and means as shall be practicable for that purpose, prevent as far as possible the effluvia of sewers and drains from exuding from gully-holes, gratings, or any other openings whatsoever of drains or sewers, in the said stations; and in case the owner of any private sewer or drain shall neglect or delay so to do, the surveyor of the said Municipal Committees shall give him notice to prevent as far as possible the effluvia of such sewer or drain from so exuding, and if the same shall not be done by such a time within ten days after such notice shall have been given to him, the said surveyor shall forthwith provide and apply proper traps or other coverings, or such other means as aforesaid, so as effectually to prevent such effluvia from exuding, and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by of such error or claim, to be recovered as hereinafter mentioned.

XXXI. If from the representation of the surveyor of the Municipal Committee, and after inquiry by such other ways and means as the Municipal Committee may think fit to direct, the said Municipal Committee shall certify, such certificate to be published in the local papers of the station, that any burial-ground situated within the said stations is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, or that any church, or other place of public worship within the station is dangerous to the health of persons frequenting the same, by reason of the state of the walls, or graves within the walls of or underneath the same, and that sufficient means of improvement exist within a convenient distance from such burial-ground, church, or place of public worship, it shall not be lawful, after a time to be named in such certificate, to bury or permit or suffer to be buried any further corpses or coffin, within, or under the ground, church, or place of worship to which the certificate relates, except in so far as may be allowed by such certificate; and whosoever after notice of such certificate buries, or causes, permits, or suffers to be buried, any corpse or coffin contrary to this enactment, shall for every such offence be liable, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a penalty, not exceeding five hundred Company's Rupees.

XXXII. No vault or grave shall be constructed or made within the walls of, or underneath any church or other place of public worship built in the said stations after the passing of this Act, and no burial-ground shall be made or formed within the said stations after the passing of this Act, without the consent of the Municipal Committee, and whosoever shall bury, or cause, permit, or suffer to be buried, any corpse or coffin in any vault, grave or burial-ground constructed, made, or formed contrary to this enactment, shall, for every such offence, be liable, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a penalty not exceeding Company's Rupees five hundred.

XXXIII. No writ or process shall be issued out against or served upon any Municipal Committee or any collector, surveyor, or other officer, or person whomsoever, acting under the direction of the Municipal Committee, for any thing done or intended to be done under the powers of this Act, until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing shall have been delivered to him, or left at his office or place of abode, explicitly stating the cause of action, and the name and place of abode of the intended plaintiff, and of his attorney or agent in the cause, and after the trial of any such action the plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into evidence of any cause of action except such as is stated in the notice as delivered, and unless such notice be proved, the Court shall find for the defendant, and every such action shall be brought or commenced within three calendar months next after the removal of the cause of action, and not afterwards, and if any party shall have committed any irregularity, trespass, or other wrongful proceedings in the execution of this Act, or by virtue of any power or authority lawfully given, and if before action brought in respect thereof such party shall make tender of sufficient amount to the party injured, such last mentioned party shall not recover in any such action when brought, and if no such tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the defendant in such action, by leave of the Court where such action shall be pending, at any time before issue joined, to pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into Court.

XXXIV. No matter or thing done, or contract entered into, by the Municipal Committee, or any one of their Members, or by any collector, surveyor, or other officer, or person whomsoever, acting under the direction of the Municipal Committee, shall, if the matter or thing were done, or the contract were entered into bona fide, for the purpose of executing this Act, subject them or any of them personally to any action, liability, claim, or demand whatsoever, and any expense incurred by any such Municipal Committee, collector, surveyor, or other officer, or person acting as last aforesaid, shall be borne and repaid out of the funds under the control of the Municipal Committee.

XXXV. All the streets existing within the said stations at the time of the passing of this Act, and all parts of the said stations which hereafter become streets, and also the pavements, stones and other materials therein, and all erections and building materials, implements or other things provided for the said streets, by or under the authority, or the Government of the Settlements, or by the Magistrates of the said stations, or by the said Municipal Committee, and also all public sewers and drains within the said stations, together with all works, materials and things therewith connected and belonging, existing in the said stations at the time of the passing of this Act, or which shall hereafter be constructed and made therein by the said Municipal Committee or otherwise; and also all canals, aqueducts, conduits, drains, water-works, cisterns, pumps, pipes, tanks, reservoirs and wells, which now are or shall hereafter be provided, or lawfully applied to public use, and which are not the property of any private person, together with all buildings, engines, works, materials and things therewith connected, existing in the said stations at the time of the passing of this Act, or which shall hereafter be constructed and made therein at the costs of the said Municipal Committee or otherwise; and also all lands surrounding and belonging to public tanks and slips of ground alongside of any street, drain or aqueduct, not the property of any private person; and also all lands not legally appropriated, and also all dirt, dust, dry and liquid filth, ashes and rubbish to be collected from the streets, houses, privies, sewers, and cess-pools and elsewhere, in the said stations, shall be the property of, and are hereby vested in the said Municipal Committee as Trustees for the purposes of this Act.

XXXVI. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to render lawful any act or omission on the part of any person, which is, or but for this Act, would be deemed and adjudged to be, a nuisance.

at Common Law, nor to exempt any person guilty of a nuisance at Common Law, from prosecution or action in respect thereof. Provided always, that if any person convicted of an offence under this Act, shall have paid the whole amount adjudged to be paid under such conviction, and the costs thereof, or shall have suffered imprisonment in respect of such offence, in every such case he shall be released from all further or other criminal proceedings for the same offence.

XXXVII. It shall be lawful for any person at his own expense, to make or branch any drain into any of the sewers vested in the said Municipal Committees, or authorized to be made by virtue of this Act, or otherwise acquired by the said Municipal Committees; such drain being made of such a size and in such a manner of communication in all respects as the said surveyor of the said Municipal Committees shall direct, and for that purpose to take up and remove, with the permission of the Municipal Committees, so much of the pavement and other materials of any street as may be required, unless the said Municipal Committees shall consent and agree, which they are hereby authorized to do, to form so much and such portion of such drain as shall lead from the point of communication in such sewer to the extremity of such street, and in case any person shall make or branch any drain into any of the said sewers, so vested in the said Municipal Committees, or authorized to be made, under, and by virtue of this Act, of a different size or in a different manner and form of communication than shall be directed or appointed by the said surveyor, every person so offending shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, a sum not exceeding fifty Rupees, and in default of payment shall be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month; and the said Justice shall order the said person so offending to alter such drain as required by the said Municipal Committees within ten days, and in default the said Municipal Committees shall, at the expense of the maker of such drain, alter or destroy the same as they shall think fit; and in case the expense of making such alteration or destruction shall not be paid by the owner or maker of such drain, the expense incurred thereby shall be recovered in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XXXVIII. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to contract and agree with the owners of any houses or other tenements within the said stations, that any drains required to be constructed and made by such owners shall be constructed and made by the surveyor of the said Municipal Committees, and the cost price of making such drains (as certified by the said surveyor of the said Municipal Committees), shall be repaid by such owners to the said Municipal Committees, and in default of such payment the same may be recovered in the manner hereinafter provided.

XXXIX. Before beginning to dig or lay the foundations of any new house, building, or wall, within the said stations, or to rebuild any house, building, or wall therein, contiguous or near to any street, and not being within the compound wall of any premises, and also before making any sewer or drain for the purpose of detaining water directly or indirectly from any land or tenement into any sewer under the jurisdiction of the said Municipal Committees, fourteen clear days notice in writing shall be given to the Collector to the said Municipal Committees, by delivering the same to him, or leaving it at his office, by the person intending to build or rebuild such house, building, or wall, or to make such sewer or drain; and every foundation of any such house, building, or wall, and the drains within the same, shall be laid at such level as the surveyor of the said Municipal Committees shall direct, and so as that no part of the said house, building, or wall shall project or encroach into or over the adjoining street, drain, or aqueduct, and so as that the said drains may be properly built with reference to the adjoining public drains, and every such branch drain shall be made in such direction, manner, and form, and of such materials, and workmanship as the said surveyor shall order; and the building or rebuilding of any such house, building, or wall shall be under the survey and control of the said Municipal Committees, and their surveyor, so far as may be necessary to prevent any projection or encroachment in or over any street, drain, or aqueduct, and to insure that the level of the drains within such house, building, or wall shall be properly built with reference to the public drains; and in default of such notice as aforesaid, or if such building or drain shall be begun, or made without, or in any respect contrary to any order of the said surveyor, or of the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to cause such building to be demolished, and to cause such drain to be relaid, amended, destroyed, or altered as the case may require, and to cause the expenses thereof to be levied and repaid to them from and by the owner thereof in manner herein after provided.

XI. Every person, upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace, on the testimony of one or more credible witnesses, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than fifty rupees, or in default of payment thereof, imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding one month, who, within the limits of the said stations, shall commit any one of the following offences; (that is to say:—)

1. Every person who shall throw or put, or cause or order, or allow his servants to throw or put, or from whose premises shall be thrown or put, any dirt, dung, mud, dust, ashes, garden or stable refuse, or rubbish of any kind, or the carcass of any dog or other animal, or any flesh or other part of an animal, or any animal matter, upon any of the public streets, except between the hours of midnight and seven in the morning.

2. Every person, who shall throw or put, or cause or allow to be thrown or put, or from whose premises shall be thrown or put, any broken bottles, glass, china or crockery ware upon or into any street, drain or aqueduct.

3. Every person, who shall keep, or allow to be kept, for more than twenty-four hours, any dirt, dung, mud, dust, bones, ashes, night-soil, or other refuse of a perishable and noxious kind on or upon any lands, out-house, yard, or ground occupied by him.

4. Every person, being the owner or occupier of any private laty, drain, sewer, cess-pool, bathery, or other receptacle of filth, who shall neglect or refuse to keep the same in a clean and proper state, or to employ proper means to remove any noisome smell or the filth therefrom, or who shall expose the contents of such privy to the view of the passers by in the street.

5. Every person, being the owner or occupier of any house, hut, building, or lands, whether tenanted or otherwise, who shall suffer the same to be in a filthy and unwholesome state, or overgrown with rank and noisome vegetation.

6. Every person, who shall cause or allow the water of any sink, sewer or drain, or other offensive liquid matter belonging to him, or running through or being on his land, to run, drain, or be carried into or upon any of the streets, tanks, aqueducts, or reservoirs, belonging to the Municipal Committees, or who shall commit or cause any act whatsoever, whereby the water provided for the domestic use of the inhabitants of the stations shall be in any way fouled or corrupted, or who shall throw or put, or cause, or order or allow his servants to throw or put, or from whose premises shall be thrown or put, any dirt, dung, mud, dust, ashes, night-soil, garden or stable refuse or other rubbish, into any of the public sewers or drains, or into any reservoirs, tanks, aqueducts, or other water-works, belonging to the Municipal Committees.

7. Every person, who shall have or keep any common laty, privy, or urinal, on any ground owned or occupied by him within the stations, without a license first had from the Municipal Committees, who are hereby authorized to grant the same under the hand of their Collector: such license shall be granted for one year, and shall be renewed or not every year according to the discretion of the Municipal Committees.

8. Every person being the owner or farmer of any licensed laty, privy or urinal within the said stations, who shall suffer such laty, privy or urinal to be kept in a filthy and unclean state, or shall neglect to employ proper means for cleaning and regulating it.

9. Every person who shall wantonly, or wilfully destroy, injure or deface any of the lamps or lamp posts in the said streets, or extinguish any light therein, or abstract or take away from any of the said lamps, any oil or other matter or thing therein, or any part thereof, without the order of the said Municipal Committees, or of their said surveyor, or who shall wantonly or wilfully destroy, injure, or deface any board bearing on it the name of any street, or the number of any building or land within the said stations, or any notice of the said Municipal Committees fixed or posted up in any place.

10. Every person who shall displace, take up or make any alteration in the pavements, flags, stones, fences, posts, or other materials of any foot or carriage-way in any street, without the consent in writing of the said Municipal Committees, or of their said surveyor, or who shall cause any obstruction to, or make any encroachments upon, any street or upon any sewer, drain, aqueduct, or space of ground alongside a street, drain or aqueduct.

11. Every person who shall take down, or remove any fences or boards, or any bars, chains, or posts erected by the said Municipal Committees, or extinguish any light attached to or connected with the said fences, boards, bars, chains, or posts, without the authority or consent of the said Municipal Committees, or their surveyor.

12. Every person, who shall carry or cause to be carried in carts, pots, handies or other vessels any night soil or urine, or other noisome or offensive matter through the public streets except, between the hours of midnight and eight in the morning, or who shall carry or cause to be carried any night-soil, or urine in such manner that any offensive smell or drainings issue therefrom, or who shall place or set down in any public place any vessel containing night-soil or urine, or who shall carry, or cause the same to be carried in any other than covered carts or vessels, or who shall throw or deposit any night-soil in or upon any street.

13. Every person, who shall bathe or wash any part of his person in any public street, or upon, or in any of the tanks, reservoirs, aqueducts, water-works, or drains, belonging to the Municipal Committees, except in such of the said tanks, reservoirs, aqueducts, water-works, or drains, as the Municipal Committees shall set apart for that purpose.

14. Every person, who shall wash or cause to be washed any horse, dog, or other animal, or any cloth, wearing apparel, or any skin of any animal, or any foot or offensive thing on any street, in or near any tanks, aqueducts, water-works, or drains, belonging to the Municipal Committees, or on or in the road adjoining thereto, except in such of the said tanks, reservoirs, aqueducts, water-works, or drains as the said Municipal Committees shall set apart for that purpose.

15. Every person who shall wilfully and indecently expose his person, or who shall commit nuisance in any of the public streets.

16. Every person, being the owner or occupier of any house, hut, or building within the stations, which has a drain on the same side of the street, wherein such house, hut, or building is situate, who shall cause or allow any water, or liquid matter from or on such house, hut, or building to flow, or be carried through pipes, gutters, water-spouts, or other means on any part of any public street, or on any place but his own land, or the public drain, or who shall refuse or neglect to remove, or alter the direction of any such pipe, gutter, or water-spout, after the expiration of ten days notice in that purpose given by the surveyor of the said Municipal Committees; and any person, being the owner or occupier of any house, hut, or building in the said stations, which has not a drain on the same side of the street as such house, hut, or building, who shall convey the water from the said house, either building in, or upon any public street, through pipes or water-spouts, the mouths of which shall be higher than two feet from the ground.

17. Every person being the owner or occupier of any house, hut or building, who shall cause or allow any verandah, balcony, sun-shade, or other part of any house, hut, or building, to overhang and project into any public street or public place, at a height of less than eleven feet from the level of the roadway, or to a distance exceeding four feet from the house, and who shall refuse or neglect to take down and remove such verandah, balcony, sun-shade, or other projection after the expiration of fifteen days notice for that purpose given by the surveyor.

18. Every person who shall, after the passing of this Act, erect or set up any verandah, balcony, sun-shade, or other projection of any kind which may overhang and project into the road at any height, and to any distance without license first obtained from the Municipal Committee, under the hand of their surveyor.

19. Every person who shall wash or cleanse, or cause or order or allow his servants to wash or cleanse any carriage or other conveyance, or horse or other animal, or whose carriage or other conveyance, or horse or other animal shall be washed or cleansed in any public street or other public place.

20. Every person, who shall place, set up, or build in any public street within the stations any board, scaffold, post, bar, rail, boards, or any other thing by way of enclosure for the purpose of making, or of depositing, or of depositing any bricks, stone, lime, sand, or any building materials, for building any house or other building, or for any other purpose whatsoever, without license first obtained from the Municipal Committee, who are hereby authorized to grant such license, under the hand of their surveyor, or who shall set up or build the same in any other manner, or allow or cause the same to be continued for any longer time than shall be allowed or expressed in such license, or who shall cause or allow any of the building materials or other things to extend beyond the distance expressed in the license.

21. Every person who shall have been allowed by the Municipal Committee to set up any scaffolding, or deposit any bricks, stone, lime, sand, or other building materials on the public streets, and who shall not cause a light to be set up every night from sunset to sunrise on every such erection or obstruction.

22. Every person who shall build any wall or erect any fence or obstruction, or set up any post, so as to be an obstruction in any street, whether the proprietary right to such street shall be in dispute or not.

23. Every person who shall set out, place, or expose, or cause to be set out, placed or exposed, whether for sale or otherwise, any stall, boot, show-board, basket, cask, or vessel, fish, vegetable, fruit, groceries, or any other merchandise, or goods of any kind, or any stone, bricks, earthenware, hard-ware, timber, or any other thing whatsoever, whether animal, vegetable, or mineral, in, or upon any of the public streets, or on, or over any drain, sewer or aqueduct.

24. Every person who shall sift or clean, or cause to be sifted or cleansed, or exposed for any other purpose any cotton, grain, seeds, rice, coffee, onions, or any other vegetable matter whatsoever, or who shall sift bricks, dust or lime on any public street, or on, or over any public drain, sewer, reservoir, or aqueduct.

25. Every person who shall keep or leave any carriage, cart, hackney or other conveyance, or any horse, or other animal, on any public street, or on, or over any public drain, sewer, or aqueduct, so as to cause an obstruction in the streets or public thoroughfare.

26. Every person who shall set fire to or burn any straw, hay, seeds, timber, or any other matter, or light any bonfire, or fire in any public street, or discharge any kind of fire-arms, or any air-gun, or let off, or throw any kind of fire-works, or send up any fire-balloon, anywhere in the said stations.

27. Every person who shall beat or sound any musical or sounding instrument, or any brass or metal utensil, or any other metal in the public streets, except at such times and places as shall be from time to time appointed by the sitting Magistrate upon application made to him for that purpose.

28. Every person, other than the said Municipal Committee, or their servants, who shall affix any bill, notice, or any paper against or upon any building wall, fence, or board, or who shall write upon, deface, or mark with chalk, or paint, or in any way whatsoever, any building wall, fence, or board without the consent of the owner or occupier thereof.

29. Every person who shall expose or allow to be exposed within the limits of the said stations any animal carcass, meat, poultry, game, fish, or vegetables in a decayed and unwholesome state, and unfit for the food of man.

30. Every person who shall keep in any street, house, out-house, yard or ground, within the limits of the said stations any animal, except in a vessel erected on the sea side over ground covered by water at high-water mark.

31. Every person who shall keep as above any horned cattle, sheep or goats, without the special permission of the said Municipal Committee, and every person having such permission, shall allow the said cattle, sheep or goats to be loose, and to stray in the streets and thoroughfares of the said Towns.

32. Every person who shall drive from the shafts of any vehicle, or from the inside of a palanquin carriage, unless a syc or horse-keeper be at the same time at the horse's head.

Every owner of street or a lane line that may be found on the public street and highways, without a piece of wood latched across its doors according to a notice in the office of the Municipal Committee.

Every driver of a bullock or bullock cart, whose halter, or nose string, or other rope for guiding and controlling the animal, shall be found defective.

Every person detected in publicly fighting cock, or gambling in any other manner, or taking as a spectator of such cock-fighting, or gambling.

Every person, who may be found abroad with any knife, spear, or other offensive weapons, unless specially permitted by the chief civil authority of the stations.

It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees, with the concurrence of the sitting Magistrate, at their discretion, to grant a licence to any person, permitting him to put up posters on the side of any public street for the purpose of affixing thereon lamps to illuminate the said street, on occasions of festivals or ceremonies; and any person, who shall put up any such post, or affix any such lamp for any purpose, without licence first had and obtained from the Municipal Committee, under the hand of the collector or surveyor, shall, on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment, shall be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month.

Every person, being the owner, occupier, or farmer of any public market, bazaar, or slaughter-house within the station, shall cause such market, bazaar, or slaughter-house to be registered at the office of the Municipal Committee, with a general description of the place, the number of shops and stalls, and kinds of goods therein exposed for sale; and if he shall refuse or neglect so to register the same, he shall forfeit and pay, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month.

No place shall be used or occupied as a slaughter-house within the said stations which was not in such use and occupation at the time of the passing of this Act, and has not so continued ever since, unless and until a licence for the erection thereof, or for the use and occupation thereof, as a slaughter-house has been obtained from the Municipal Committee; and any person who, without having first obtained such licence as aforesaid, shall use as a slaughter-house any place within the said limits, not used as such at the time of the passing of this Act, and continued so to be used ever since, shall, for every offence, forfeit and pay, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment shall be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month.

Every person, being the owner, occupier, or farmer of any public market, bazaar, or slaughter-house within the station, shall cause such market, bazaar, or slaughter-house to be registered at the office of the Municipal Committee, with a general description of the place, the number of shops and stalls, and kinds of goods therein exposed for sale; and if he shall refuse or neglect so to register the same, he shall forfeit and pay, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month.

Any person, who, after the passing of this Act, shall establish any new factory, or other manufactory, within the said stations, from which an offensive or noxious smoke, steam, or gas, shall be emitted, shall, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees, and in default of payment, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding two months.

All doors and gates put up after the passing of this Act, within the limits of the said stations, and which open upon any street, shall be hung or placed so as not to open outwards, and if any such door or gate be hung or placed so as to open outwards on any street, the owner of such house, building, yard, or land shall, within eight days after notice from the Municipal Committee to that effect, cause the same to be altered so as not to open outwards, and in case he neglects so to do, the Municipal Committee may cause such alteration, and the expenses of such alteration shall be paid to the Municipal Committee by such occupier, and shall be recoverable from him in manner hereafter mentioned. And if any such door or gate was before the passing of this Act, hung so as to open outwards upon any street, the Municipal Committee may alter the same, or cause the same to be altered so that no part of the door when open shall project over any public way.

Every person, being the owner or occupier of a house in the station, shall fix, at his own expense, in a conspicuous place, either in the house, or of his gate, in the street, the number of the same, as recorded in the Assessment Books, and in other number, and the said number shall be in legible figures, at least three inches in length, and any person who, after the expiration of three months after the publication of this Act, shall neglect or refuse to have such number affixed, shall, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding fifty rupees.

Every person, being the occupier of a house in the station, and who is not a gross monthly tenant of the same, shall, at his own expense, in a conspicuous place, either in the house, or of his gate, in the street, the number of the same, as recorded in the Assessment Books, and in other number, and the said number shall be in legible figures, at least three inches in length, and any person who, after the expiration of three months after the publication of this Act, shall neglect or refuse to have such number affixed, shall, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding fifty rupees.

there be in a chimney, outside of his gate, in the street, a lamp, of a pattern as is approved or allowed by the Municipal Committee, and the said occupier shall keep and maintain a good and sufficient light burning in the said lamp throughout the night, and any person who, after the expiration of three months next after the passing of this Act, shall neglect or refuse to have such lamp affixed as aforesaid, or who shall on any night after the expiration of the said three months, neglect or refuse to keep a good and sufficient light burning therein as aforesaid, shall, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees.

XLIX. When any person shall have been convicted under the provisions of this Act, and shall not, within seven days after such conviction, discontinue the nuisance, or cease to commit the offence for which he was so convicted, such person shall be again liable to the penalties and punishments provided by this Act for such nuisance or offence, and may be again convicted or sentenced under this Act accordingly, and in cases where by the provisions of this Act offenders are required to have notice given them to remove the obstruction or nuisance previous to being liable to the penalties imposed by this Act, if such parties being once warned shall be convicted, and shall again offend against the provisions of this Act, it shall not be necessary to repeat the notice aforesaid, but the parties may be summoned at once.

L. Any person, who shall wilfully obstruct or molest the said Municipal Committees, or any of them, or their collector, surveyor or other officer, or workman employed by them under the provisions of this Act, or any person or Company with whom they may have contracted under the provisions of this Act, or any person employed by them in the performance or execution of any duty or thing which they are respectively required or authorized to do under this Act, shall, for every such offence, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, or, in the discretion of the said Justice before whom he is convicted, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding three months.

LI. No person shall be liable to the payment of any penalty or forfeiture imposed by virtue of this Act, for any offence complained of before a Justice of the Peace, unless the complaint respecting such offence shall have been made before such Justice within three months next after the commission of such offence. Provided always, that nothing in this Section contained shall be construed so as to prevent the removal of any obstruction or encroachment in or upon any of the streets or lands, or the imposing or levying at any time of any penalty or forfeiture in respect thereof.

LII. In all cases where any damages, costs, or expenses are by this Act directed to be paid, and the method of ascertaining the amount, or of enforcing the paying thereof, is not provided for, such amount in case of dispute shall be ascertained and determined by arbitration, in like manner as is provided for proceeding by arbitration under Act No. XXII. of 1847, interpreted in manner aforesaid, and if the parties cannot agree upon two persons or arbitrators, or the arbitrators fail to pronounce judgment as aforesaid, then by any two Justices of the Settlement, and if the amount so ascertained be not paid by the said Municipal Committee, or by the other party liable to pay the same, as the case may be, within seven days after demand thereof, the amount may be recovered by action in debt or on the case in Her Majesty's Court of Judicature or the Court of Requests.

LIII. The said Municipal Committees shall publish short particulars of the several offences for which any penalty or punishment is imposed by this Act, affecting either persons or officers or servants of the said Municipal Committees, and of the amount of every such penalty and punishment, and shall cause such particulars to be printed on a board, or to be printed upon paper, and posted on a board in English, Chinese and Malay, and shall cause such board to be hung up or affixed in some conspicuous place in the office of the Collector of the said Municipal Committee, and when any such penalties are of local application, shall cause such boards to be affixed in some conspicuous place of the immediate neighbourhood to which such penalties are applicable, or have reference.

LIV. Every penalty or forfeiture imposed by this Act or any expense incurred by the said Municipal Committees, in respect of any private drains, sewers, goora, or other things as aforesaid, the recovery of which is not otherwise provided for, may be recovered by summary proceeding before any Justice of the Peace of the Settlement, and on complaint being made to any such Justice he shall issue his summons, requiring the party complained against to appear before him at a time and place to be named in such summons, and every such summons shall be served on the party complained against, either in person or by leaving the same at his usual or last known place of abode, and upon the appearance of the party complained against, or in his absence, after proof of the due service of such summons, it shall be lawful for such Justice to proceed to the hearing of the complaint, which complaint shall be reduced to writing, and upon proof of the offence, or of the expense having been incurred, either by the confession of the party complained against, or upon the oath or solemn affirmation of one credible witness or more, it shall be lawful for such Justice to convict the offender or party summoned, as aforesaid, and upon such conviction to adjudge the offender to pay the penalty or forfeiture, or suffer the punishment, or to pay the expense incurred under the provisions of this Act, as well as such costs attending the conviction as such Justice shall think fit, which penalty or forfeiture and costs, so adjudged, may be levied by distress.

LV. Where in this Act any sum of money, whether in the nature of penalty or otherwise, is directed to be levied by distress, such sum of money shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party liable to pay the same, and the overplus arising from such goods and chattels after satisfying such sum of money and the expenses of the distress and sale, shall be returned on demand to the party whose goods shall have been distrained, or instead of proceeding by

...and also, in case of failure to comply with the whole or any part of any penalty, forfeiture, or expenses imposed, or incurred, under the provisions of this Act, the Municipal Committee, or any one or more of their Members, if they think fit, may authorize their collector or other person to sue the person liable to pay such penalty, forfeiture, or expenses, or any part thereof, in the Court of Requests, and the costs, if any, incurred in any such suit, which are not recovered in the suit, may be deducted out of the taxes levied under the provisions of Act of 1853.

LXX. No distress levied by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall any such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such defect, or irregularity, may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action on the case in Her Majesty's said Court of Judicature, or in the Court of Requests.

LXII. The Justice of the Peace by whom any such penalty or forfeiture is to be applied, shall be named, in any, when the application thereof is not otherwise provided for, award not more than one-half thereof, or any less sum to the informer, if he shall think fit so to do, and shall award the remainder of the whole thereof, to the said Municipal Committee, to be by them applied to the purpose of this Act, as to them shall appear fit, and shall order the same to be paid over to the collector of the said Municipal Committee for that purpose, whose receipt shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the person so paying the same.

LXIII. If through any act, neglect, or default, or account whereof any person shall have incurred any penalty imposed by this Act, any damage to the property of the said Municipal Committee shall have been committed by such person, he shall be liable to make good such damage, as well as to pay such penalty, and if the amount of such damage shall not be paid on demand the same may be recovered by action of debt, or on the case, in the said Court of Requests, or in Her Majesty's said Court of Judicature.

LXIV. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to summon any person to appear before him as a witness in any matter in which such Justice shall have jurisdiction under the provisions of this Act, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, and require from him, on oath or solemn affirmation, that he will attend the trial in such matter, and if any person so summoned shall without reasonable cause refuse or neglect to appear at the time and place appointed for that purpose, having been first or tendered a reasonable sum for his expenses, if from distance or any other cause, he shall be lawfully entitled to claim such expenses, and any person so summoned shall not be examined on his oath or solemn affirmation, according to law, or to any evidence before such Justice, except such person shall, for every such action of debt, and pay a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees, or, at the discretion of such Justice, shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one month.

LXV. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context to import in such construction: (that is to say,) words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number; words importing the masculine gender only shall include females; the word "person" shall include corporations, whether aggregate or sole; the words "oath," "affirmation," and "solemn affirmation," when used alone, shall include oath or affirmation, or other declaration lawfully substituted for an oath in such case by any legislative Act of the Governor-General of India in Council, or by any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland extended to India; the word "street" shall include any public square, arena, street, court, alley, foot-path, highway, lane, road, thoroughfare, public passage, or other public place within the said stations; the word "lands" shall include messuages, buildings, walls, tenements, and hereditaments of any tenure as well as lands; the words the "said Municipal Committee," shall mean the Municipal Committee for the time being appointed or acting under the provisions of Act No. of 1853, and the word "month" shall mean calendar month.

Ordered, that the draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said draft be reconsidered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 27th day of August next.

J. P. CRANT,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislation,
The 27th May, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 27th of May, 1853.

Act No. --- of 1853.

An Act relating to the Police of the Settlement of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend divers Rules and Regulations which have been made in the said Settlement of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca, by Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions assembled, under the Charter of Her Majesty's Court of Judicature, It is enacted as follows:

I. All the Rules, Ordinances and Regulations that have heretofore been passed in the Settlement of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca, by the Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions assembled are hereby repealed.

II. If any person within the said Settlement, having sufficient means or employment, shall refuse or neglect to attend his wife or his household or other persons under his control, and shall be thereof convicted before a Justice of the Peace, upon his own confession, or the oath of one or more credible witnesses, the said Justice

Persons liable to penalty shall pay damages, as to Municipal Committee rules.

Persons liable to summons shall pay penalty for non-attendance.

Justice of the Peace may make order of punishment for wife and children.

may move in order, upon such person for the maintenance of each wife and children of any of them at such monthly rate as to the Justice seems reasonable; and upon non-compliance with the said order for any day, month, or longer period, any Justice, by warrant under his hand and seal, may commit the person so contumacious to the common jail of the station without labor, or to the house of correction to hard labor, for any time not exceeding two calendar months.

III. If every person who shall be brought before a Justice of the Peace, charged with having in his possession, or in his premises with his knowledge, or with conveying in any manner, anything which may be reasonably suspected of being stolen, or unlawfully obtained, he shall not give an account to the satisfaction of such Justice how he came by the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before such Justice, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to the discretion of the said Justice to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any time, not exceeding three calendar months.

IV. When any person shall be brought before a Justice of the Peace, charged with having in his possession, or in his premises, with his knowledge, or with conveying anything stolen or unlawfully obtained, and shall declare that he received the same from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent or servant to convey the same for some other person, such Justice shall cause every such person, and also, if necessary, every former and pretended purchaser, or other person through whose possession the same shall have passed to be brought before him and examined, and shall examine witnesses upon oath touching the same; and if it shall appear to such Justice that any person shall have had possession of such thing, and had reasonable cause to believe the same to have been stolen, or unlawfully obtained, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to the discretion of the Justice, may be any charged, with or without hard labor, for any time, not exceeding three calendar months. Every such person shall be deemed to have had possession of such thing at the time and place where and where the same shall have been found or seized, and the possession of a carrier, agent or servant, shall be deemed to be the possession of the person, with whom he had employed such carrier, agent or servant to keep or convey the same.

V. Information shall be given, on oath, to a Justice of the Peace, that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that anything stolen, or unlawfully obtained, is concealed or lodged in any dwelling-house, building or other place, such Justice, by special warrant under his hand, directed to any police officer or constable, may cause such dwelling-house, building or other place to be searched and searched at any time of the day, or by night, if power for that purpose be given by such warrant; and the said Justice, if it shall appear to him necessary, may empower such police officer, or constable, and such assistance as may be required in such search, constable (including previously made known his subordinates), to use force for the breaking of premises, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise; and if in any such dwelling-house any such thing shall be found, he may convey the same before a Justice, and a warrant in pursuance of the said warrant may be taken before a Justice, or otherwise causing them to be taken in some place of safety, and may then, at the discretion, and carry before the said Justice every person found in such house or place, who shall appear to have been privy to the taking of, or such thing, knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect the same to have been stolen, or otherwise unlawfully obtained.

VI. If information shall be given to any superintendent or head constable belonging to the police, that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that anything stolen or unlawfully obtained, is concealed or lodged in any dwelling-house or other place, and the said superintendent or head constable, shall have good grounds for believing that, by reason of the delay in obtaining a search warrant the property is likely to be removed, the said superintendent or head constable, in virtue of his office, may search for specific articles alleged to have been stolen in the houses and places specified, provided always that a list of the articles stolen, or missing, be delivered and taken down in writing, with a declaration stating that the robbery has been committed, and that the informant has good grounds to believe that the property is deposited in such house or place; and provided further, that the person who lost the goods, or his representative, accompany the officer in the search.

VII. All persons charged with the commission of any of the offences specified in Acts XXI of 1839 and III of 1842 and XIV of 1850, and tried by any Justice of the Peace for the said Settlement, provided the value of the property which the person is charged with having stolen, does not according to the belief of such Justice, exceed fifty rupees, not being in the said Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding, and all the powers by Act XXI of 1839 (except Section VIII thereof) and Act III of 1842 and Act XIV of 1850, given or referred to any such Justice for the trial, conviction and sentence of parties charged with having stolen property, not exceeding twenty rupees in value, and all the provisions of the said Acts (except as aforesaid) shall extend and be applicable to the trial, conviction and sentence of parties charged with having stolen property, not exceeding, according to the belief of the Justice, fifty rupees in value.

VIII. Every person charged with the offence of feloniously receiving stolen money, knowing the same to be stolen, may be tried by any Justice of the Peace, provided that the value of the property stolen or received does not according to the belief of the Justice, exceed fifty rupees, and every such person, on conviction of any such offence, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Justice, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any time not exceeding six calendar months; and all the powers and provisions of Act III of 1839 and Act XXI of 1839 (except Section VIII thereof) and of Act XIV of 1850, and applied in far as they may be applicable to the trial, conviction and sentence of any person charged with the offence of feloniously receiving

...or money, knowing he same to be stolen, provided always, that if it shall appear to the said Justice that such person has been previously convicted of or is on the point of committing such offence, knowing the same to be stolen, the said Justice shall commit such person for trial before the Court of Judicature.

IX. Every person who is accessory before or after the fact, to any felony, which is punishable on summary conviction before any Justice, is liable to be tried and convicted summarily before such Justice, on his confession, or the oath of one or more credible witnesses, and the convicting Justice shall have power to sentence any such accessory to imprisonment with or without hard labor, for any time, not exceeding six calendar months, or in his discretion, instead of trying him, to commit him for trial to the Court of Judicature, or other Court having authority to try him.

And every boy, under the age of sixteen years, who is convicted before a Justice of the Peace, either of simple larceny under the said Acts XXI, 1837 and XIV, of 1850, or under this Act of feloniously receiving goods or money, knowing the same to be stolen, or of being an accessory to any felony, which is punishable on summary conviction before any Justice, or of the offences enumerated in the next succeeding clause of this Act, the said Justice, if he thinks fit, may sentence him to receive corporal punishment, not exceeding fifteen stripes of a light cane, instead of sentencing him to imprisonment.

XI. Any person who shall commit any assault, forcible entry, or other injury, recommended with force, not being felony within the said Settlement, against the person or property of any person whatsoever, shall be liable, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and the said Justice may award the whole, or any part of such sum to the party or parties aggrieved, by way of satisfaction for such injury, or, in the discretion of such Justice, such person shall be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any time not exceeding four calendar months.

XII. Any superintendent or head constable of police, may take into custody, or authorize a constable to take into custody, without warrant, any person who within the said Settlement, shall be charged by any other person with committing an aggravated assault, in every case in which such superintendent or head constable may have good reason to believe that such assault has been committed, although not within view of such superintendent, and that for reason of the recent commission of the offence, a warrant could not have been obtained for the apprehension of the offender.

XIII. If complaint shall be made before any Justice that any person within the said Settlement has unlawfully been taken or caused to be taken away against her will, any woman, or has unlawfully taken or caused to be taken or carried away any child within the age of sixteen years, and of an possession in possession, and against the will of any lawful father, mother, guardian or other person, who has the lawful order, keeping, custody, or government of such child, for the purpose of living in adultery with such woman or child, or for purposes of prostitution, or of deflowering, or disposing of her or him in marriage, it shall be lawful for the said Justice to make an order for the immediate restoration of such woman to her liberty, or of such female child to her husband, father, mother, guardian, or such other person as it may appear in the case may be, and to compel compliance with such order, and if it be necessary to use force for that purpose, any superintendent or constable of police, duly authorized by the Justice in that behalf, with such assistants as he may deem necessary, may break open doors, or otherwise compel compliance with the same, and the said Justice may commit any person charged with having caused to be taken or enticed away any woman or female child as aforesaid, for any of the purposes aforesaid, for trial before the Court of Judicature.

XIV. Every person who, under the provisions of Act XIV, of 1851, shall have or keep any house, shop, room, or place of public resort or entertainment, within the said Settlement, wherein provisions, liquors, or refreshments of any kind shall be sold or consumed (whether the same shall be kept or retained therein, or procured elsewhere), and who shall knowingly or wilfully permit drunkenness or other disorderly behaviour in such house, shop, room or place, or who shall knowingly suffer any unlawful games or any gaming whatsoever therein, or who shall knowingly permit prostitutes, or persons of notoriously bad character, to meet or remain therein, or who shall wilfully harbour or conceal any seaman or apprentice, who shall have deserted, knowing or having reason to believe such seaman or apprentice so harboured or concealed to be a deserter, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding one hundred rupees, and shall be liable to forfeiture of his licence, in addition to any other penalty or punishment that shall be imposed on him.

XV. Any superintendent or constable of police may at any time or the day or night enter such licensed house, shop, room or place of public resort or amusement, and, if necessary, may use force for the purpose of effecting such entry, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise.

XVI. Every person, who shall take or throw or attempt to take or throw into any jail or house of correction of the Settlement, any quantity of smutinous libels, wine or intoxicating drugs, without the licence or consent of the governor or keeper of such jail or house of correction, respectively, shall be liable for every such offence, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a penalty, not exceeding fifty rupees, or, at the discretion of the said Justice, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding two months.

XVII. Every person, who shall have been committed to any jail or house of correction, or who shall be in custody at any police office or station, and who shall unlawfully break or escape from such jail, house of correction, police office or station, shall be liable, for every such offence, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, or any period not exceeding ing three months, and such imprisonment shall commence and take effect from and after the expiration of any other sentence of imprisonment, under which such person may have been in the time of committing the offence aforesaid.

XXIII. Every person who shall be found drunk and incapable of taking care of himself, in any street or public thoroughfare, or who shall be guilty of any riotous or indecent behaviour in any street, public thoroughfare, police office or station, shall be liable, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a penalty, not exceeding twenty rupees, for every such offence, or, at the discretion of the said Justice, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding fourteen days, and any constable or other officer of police may take into custody, and lodge in the nearest station house any such person so found drunk, or incapable of taking care of himself, and such person may be retained in such custody until recovered from drunkenness, when he shall be brought before a Justice of the Peace.

XIX. Any constable or peace officer may take into custody, without a warrant, any person who shall be found between sunset and sunrise, armed with any dangerous or offensive instrument whatsoever, with intent to break or enter into any house, or other building whatsoever, or any loose, idle or disorderly persons, whom he shall find disturbing the public peace, or whom he shall have good cause to suspect of having committed, or being about to commit, any felony, misdemeanor, or breach of the peace, or any reputed thief, whom he shall find between sunset and sunrise on board any boat in the river, or lying, or loitering in any bazar, street, road, yard, thoroughfare, or other place, and not giving a satisfactory account of himself, or any person having in his possession without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on such person) any picklock, key, crow, bar, or other implement of house-breaking, or any person found between sunset and sunrise, having his face blackened, or otherwise disguised, with intent to commit any felony, or any person who shall be found between sunset and sunrise in any dwelling-house, or other building whatsoever, with intent to commit any felony therein, and every such offender, on conviction before a Justice, either on his own confession, or on the evidence of one or more credible witnesses, shall be liable, at the discretion of the said Justice, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding twelve calendar months.

XX. Every person who shall beg or apply for alms or relief in any public road, street or thoroughfare, or who shall expose, or exhibit any sores, wounds, bodily ailment or deformity in such roads, streets or public thoroughfares, with the object of exciting charity, or of obtaining alms or relief, or who shall seek for or obtain alms or relief by means of any false statements or pretences, or who shall cause, aid or abet any such person as aforesaid in the commission of any of the said offences, shall, for every such offence, on conviction before a Justice, be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding two calendar months.

XXI. Every person who shall drive or ride through any street, or public thoroughfare, shall, for every such offence, on conviction there-before a Justice, be liable to a penalty, not exceeding fifty rupees, or, in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment for any period not exceeding one calendar month.

XXII. Every person, who shall drive any motor vehicle, or who shall drive any time between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise, without having a lighted lamp affixed to such vehicle, shall, for every such offence, on conviction therebefore a Justice, be liable to a penalty of not more than fifty rupees, or, in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment for any period not exceeding one calendar month.

XXIII. All persons, employed in any article by retail by weight or measure, and who have, in or about their shops or premises, or otherwise in their possession, any false or deficient weight, measure, beam or scale, shall be liable, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a penalty, not exceeding twenty rupees, or, at the discretion of the said Justice, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding one calendar month; and every such false and defective weight, measure, beam or scale, shall be forfeited, and the said Justice shall cause the same to be destroyed, and he shall be liable for the superintendent of police from time to time to issue public notices at the police office and thannahs, and such places as to him appear available of the exact weight and measure of just weights and measures, and to keep at the police office and thannahs standard weights and measures for the information of the public.

XXIV. Any Justice of the Peace may issue his warrant, directing any superintendent or head constable of police to enter into any shop or other place, where articles are bought and sold by retail, and to search for and to examine the weights and measures therein, and seize all such as he may suspect to be forfeited as false and deficient in weight.

XXV. If any seaman, whether British or Foreign, shall voluntarily and without leave or lawful excuse absent himself from his vessel, any Justice of the Peace, upon oath and at the instance of any of the officers of the said vessel, may issue his warrant to apprehend and detain the said seaman, and convey him on board of his vessel, and whenever any seaman shall have been imprisoned, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, on the release of such seaman from imprisonment, to cause him to be conveyed on board of the vessel in which he may be engaged, and all lawful expenses incurred in so doing, shall be paid for by the Commander of such vessel, and in failure of paying the full for the same, on presentation, the said Justice of the Peace may issue his warrant to levy the amount of the same by distress on the said vessel in the manner hereinafter provided in Section XXXIX. of this Act.

XXVI. The superintendent of police at each station, from five to nine, and as occasion may require, may make regulations for the clearing of public streets and places, and for the removal of the same, and for the removal of the same by all carriages, and XXXIV. Every officer receiving information that any person is harbored without warrant, or being kept in the station-house, and is not admitted to bail in the police cells, is hereby authorized to arrest, without a warrant, any person committing in his view any offence against this Act, and every person taken into custody without warrant by any officer of the police, shall forthwith taken to the station-house to which the officer belongs, in order that such person may be detained until he can be brought before a Justice of the Peace to his doubt with according to law, or in order that such person may give bail for his appearance before a Justice of the Peace, if the superintendent, or constable at the station, shall deem it prudent to take bail, in the manner hereinafter mentioned, which he is hereby authorized to do.

XXXV. Whenever any person is brought to the station-house as aforesaid, charged with misdemeanor, as assault, or with having committed any offence involving any injury or damage, or whenever any superintendent or constable in charge of a police lock-up, shall deem it prudent to take any person so brought is falsely or maliciously charged with having committed a felony. And any such person as aforesaid shall be, without the warrant of a Magistrate, in the custody of any constable of the police, it shall be lawful for the superintendent of police, if he shall deem it prudent, to enlarge such person on his own recognizance, with or without sureties, conditioned as hereinafter mentioned.

XXXVI. Every recognizance so taken shall be without fee or reward, and shall be conditioned for the appearance of the person thereby bound before a Justice of the Peace at his next sitting, and the time and place of appearance, and the sum of money acknowledged (not exceeding one thousand rupees) shall be specified in the said recognizance, or the condition thereof, and the officer taking the recognizance shall enter into a book to be kept for the purpose, the name, residence and occupation of the party, and his surety or sureties (if any) entering into such recognizance, together with the condition thereof, and the sum thereby acknowledged, and shall return every such recognizance to the Justice present at the time and place, and after and where the party is bound to appear, and the said recognizance may be in either of the forms as hereinafter to be in Schedule (A) to this Act annexed, or to the like effect.

XXXVII. In every case in which any person shall be given in charge to a constable, or in which any information or complaint of any offence shall be laid or made before any Justice of the Peace, and it shall appear to the Justice or Justices the case shall be heard, that there was no sufficient ground for making the charge, it shall be lawful for such Justice, at his discretion, to award such amount, not more than the sum of fifty rupees, to be paid by the informer to the superintendent or constable against, for his loss of time and expenses in the matter, as to the Justice shall seem meet.

XXXVIII. Every Justice of the Peace shall be empowered summarily to hear and determine every complaint of an offence committed against this Act, and to convict any person charged with a petty offence on the oath of two or more witnesses, or by his own confession, and to award the penalty or punishment therein provided for any offence.

XXXIX. Upon any information or complaint to be laid or made before any Justice of the Peace, which complaint may not be made in an oath of any matter, which such Justice is authorized to hear and determine, either under this or any other Act or Regulation, he may summon the party charged, and each party shall not appear according to the tenor of the summons, the Justice, upon proof of the service of the summons, may proceed in all cases which are not of a criminal nature, if the summons, cause shall be shown for the non-appearance of the party, to hear and determine the case in the absence of the party, and in all criminal cases, shall issue a warrant for apprehending and bringing such party before him, or some other Justice, in order that the said information and complaint may be heard and determined.

XL. Every such summons may be served, by delivering it, or a copy thereof, to the party, or to his wife, or son, or some person of his dwelling, or by delivering it at, or affixing it to, the door or wall of his usual place of abode.

XLI. A Justice of the Peace may, without issuing any summons, forthwith issue his warrant for the apprehension of any person charged with any offence committed under this or any other Act or Regulation, and every person charged for so doing shall be bound on oath before him.

XLII. Any Justice may summon any witness to appear and give evidence in relation to the matter of any offence committed under this or any other Act or Regulation, with which the person shall be charged before him, at a place appointed for hearing the information, complaint, and by warrant under his hand and seal, may require any person to be brought before him, who shall neglect or refuse to give evidence at the time and place appointed on such summons, or if taken oath being first given of personal service of the summons upon the person against whom such warrant shall be granted, and such Justice may commit any person coming or brought before him who shall refuse to give evidence, to the custody of the station, for any time not exceeding fourteen days, or such other person shall be liable to be examined, and in case of such submission the order of such Justice shall be a sufficient warrant for the discharge of any person.

XLIII. When any Justice of the Peace is desirous of examining any prisoner confined in the jail or house of correction, as a witness or defendant, with respect to any offence, case or proceeding pending before him, it shall be lawful for such Justice to issue a order in the form contained in Schedule (B) to this Act annexed, or to the like effect, addressed to the keeper or governor of the jail or house of correction, requiring him to bring such prisoner in proper custody, at a time to be therein named, to the police office for examination, and the receipt of the governor of the jail or house of correction, on the receipt of such order, shall not be a condition thereof, and shall take care for the safe custody of the prisoner during his absence from prison for the purpose aforesaid.

XIV. If any person when under examination upon oath or solemn affirmation, before any Justice of the Peace, shall prevaricate or wilfully conceal the truth, it shall be lawful for such Justice of the Peace then and there, in a summary manner, to commit to custody the person so offending to forfeit a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees, or to imprisonment with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding one month; and the sentence regarding such penalty or imprisonment shall not be in the nature of such offence in general terms only.

XV. In cases of contempt of court, or of resisting or obstructing the officers of the law, when in attendance at court, or any police court or other open court presided over by a Justice of the Peace, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace, in his own discretion, summarily, and without complaint or information made or laid, to commit the person so offending to forfeit a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees, or to imprisonment with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding one month; and the sentence regarding such penalty or imprisonment shall set forth the nature of such offence in general terms only.

XVI. No person, not being a soldier or sailor employed in the service of the Queen, or the person in command of a ship or vessel belonging to the police of the Settlement, shall be entitled to carry any sword, cut-throat razor, or other offensive weapon in any street, thoroughfare, or public place, unless by leave of the sitting Magistrate, or other head of the police; and any person offending against this enactment shall be liable to be detained by any constable or other person acting under such instructions as shall be laid down in this regard by the sitting Magistrate, or other head of the police, and the weapons so seized shall be taken before the sitting Magistrate or other head of the police, and forfeited to the Government, or the sitting Magistrate, or other head of the police, in his discretion, shall think fit to declare them forfeited.

XVII. All penalties and forfeitures and other sums of money imposed, awarded, or ordered to be paid by any Justice of the Peace, under the authority of this Act, and all sums of money which any person is bound to pay under any recognizance taken before a Justice of the Peace or an Officer of the Police, imposed or taken in pursuance of this Act, and afterwards forfeited, on case of non-payment, may be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender or person bound to pay the same by warrant under the hand of any Justice of the Peace, and in case any such penalty or forfeiture, or sum of money, shall not be forthwith paid, any Justice may order the same to be committed in safe custody until the same shall be lawfully made good by such warrant of distress, unless such party shall give security to the satisfaction of such Justice for his appearance at such place and time as shall be appointed for the return of the warrant of distress; and the Justice may take such security, by way of recognizance or otherwise; and if upon the return of such warrant it shall appear that no such sum of money has been paid, then whatever he may order to be levied, or any sum of money, and the same shall not be lawfully made good, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Justice, or other authority of the party or other person, that he has not sufficient goods and chattels whereupon such penalty, forfeiture or sum of money could be levied, if warrant of distress should be issued, the Justice, by warrant under his hand, may commit such party to the common jail of the station, there to remain for any time not exceeding two calendar months.

XVIII. No conviction, order or judgment of any Justice of the Peace, shall be quashed for error of form or technicality, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds, but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order or judgment, or accompany in any writ of certiorari, and if no objection appears on the face of the conviction, order or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order or judgment shall be good by what so appears in such depositions.

XIX. In the construction of this Act the following words and expressions shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the context or subject requiring another construction, that is to say:—

Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number only shall include the singular.

Words importing the masculine gender only shall include females.

The word "Justice," or "Justices of the Peace," shall mean the Justices of the Peace for the time being acting within and for the several stations of the Settlement of the Straits of Malacca.

The word "oath," shall mean any oath or solemn affirmation in lieu of an oath.

Secy. to the Government of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,

The 3rd June, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 3rd of June, 1853.

Act No. — of 1853.

An Act for the better Assessment of the Tax upon Shops and Stalls in Bombay, and for facilitating the Collection thereof.

It is hereby enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act, the powers of Assessing and Collecting the Assessment on Shops and Stalls which, under Act XI. of 1845, Section V, are vested in the Collector of Land Revenue or Bombay and persons appointed by him, shall and may be exercised by any person or persons whom the Governor in Council of Bombay may from time to time appoint to Assess and Collect the same, and his and their appointees, and that wherever in the said Section of the said Act, the words "Collector of Land Revenue" or the word "Collector" are used, such words shall hereafter be deemed to mean the person or persons so to be appointed by the said Governor in Council.

II. Sections XIV. and XV. of Regulation XIX. of 1827 of the Bombay Code shall be held to be applicable to any Assessment under Section V. of Act XI. of 1845 aforesaid, and to any Assessment hereafter to be made under the provisions of the said Section and of this Act, and also to be applicable to the recovery and levying of any arrears of any such Assessment as in this Section is above mentioned, which shall be demanded after the passing of this Act, and in the commission of any default in the same manner and to the same extent in all respects as if any such Assessment hereinafore mentioned had become due by virtue of the said Regulation, save and except that any Justice of the Peace at Bombay, whether he be the Collector of Land Revenue or not, may act under the Provisions of those Sections, although the Collector of Land Revenue may be a Justice of the Peace; and that the word "Collector" in Section XV. of the said Regulation, shall be construed to mean the person or persons to be appointed by the Governor in Council as aforesaid, or any appointee or appointees of such person or persons, and except that in the form of warrant in Appendix F to the said Regulation, the word "Act" shall be substituted for the word "Regulation," and that the words "as prescribed by Section _____ Regulation XIX. A. D. 1827" shall be omitted from the said form, and that any warrant to be issued under this Act for levying by distress and sale, may be to the effect contained in the said Appendix F.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 3rd day of September next.
